

Valentine's Day: Puzzles 'n' Ship

Celebrate Valentine's Day with fun love-themed puzzles!

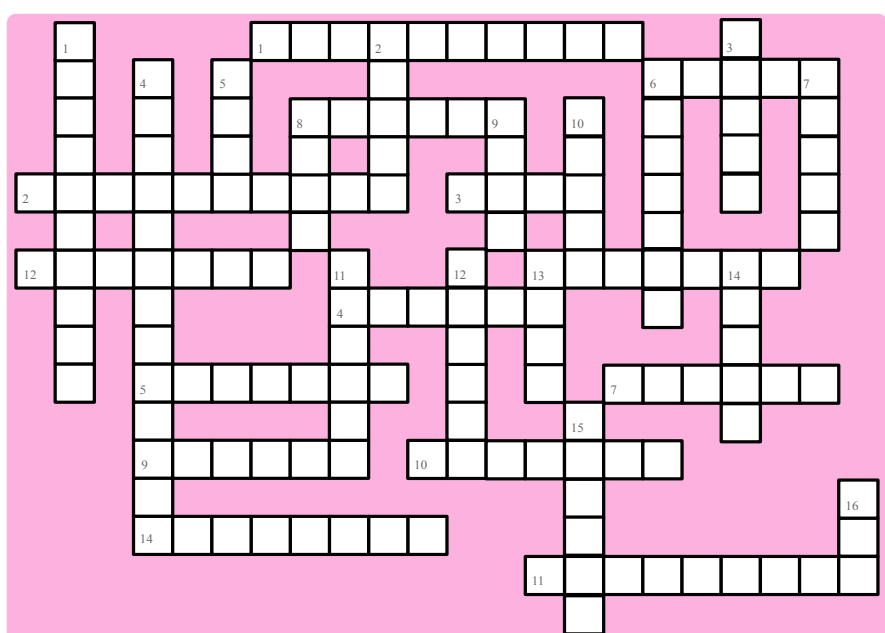

Spot the differences, feat. The Slate management!

This is the original photo. Take a long look before moving to the altered photo. You can come back to find the rest. Circle the differences, and good luck!

This is the altered photo. Notice anything different? Hint: There are eight things different between the photos. Pay attention to details!

Madison Sharp / Multimedia Editor
Jayden Pohlman, Editor-in-Chief, and Megan Sawka, Managing Editor, The Slate's 2025-2026 management.

Across:

1. Feminine term for a significant other
2. A note used to confess your feelings to a romantic interests
3. A rhythmic and often rhyming piece of literature
4. A famous Greek poet from the island of Lesbos, known for her love letters to her partner
5. Affectionate synonym for hug
6. Shape associated with love
7. Female main character of Shakespeare's play about forbidden love
8. To give all or a large part of one's time or resources to a person, activity, or cause
9. A strong feeling of wanting to have something or someone
10. An arrangement of flowers
11. Masculine term for a significant other
12. Gender neutral term for significant other
13. The feeling of excitement and mystery associated with love
14. a feeling of intense longing for something, typically something that one been separated from or that is unattainable

Down:

1. "Life is like a box of _____" - Forrest Gump
2. The term for a romantic relationship outside of marriage
3. A sweet confection, often given out on halloween
4. February 14th
5. A white bird often seen as a symbol of love and peace
6. The generic term for a special event in the year, also the term for a vacation in British English
7. A springtime flower, often grown in the Netherlands, rhymes with a part of the body
8. A social or romantic appointment
9. Greek god of love, often depicted wielding a bow and the arrows of love
10. Male main character of Shakespeare's play about forbidden love
11. Term often used to describe the human mind, but is also the Greek god of love's lover
12. Greek god of the sun and archery, known for his lovers tragically turning into plants
13. A red flower, often associated with love
14. Roman god of love, often depicted as a baby wielding a bow and arrow
15. A man who peruses a specific woman, in prospect for marriage
16. The color of love

The words in this wordsearch are related to stories in this edition of The Slate, as well as the some of our staff's favorite words!

- Advertising
- Editorial
- Onomatopoeia
- Absorb
- Fantastic
- Opinion
- Baseball
- Field
- Partition
- Basketball
- Heart
- Palooza
- Bubbles
- History
- Puppy
- Cat
- Indubitably
- Ravioli
- Cheese
- International
- Serendipity
- Construction
- Journalism
- Sonder
- Dance
- Love Line
- Ultracrepidarian
- Downtown
- Mogul

Crossword and word search by Astrid Huber.

Valentine's Day Coloring

