

FLORIDA COMMERCE

Disaster Dislocated Worker Grants

And The New TEGL 09-24

Lorena Clark, FCCM Grants & Special Initiatives Supervisor

Division of Workforce Services

Bureau of One-Stop and Program Support

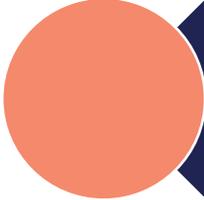

Latanya Lowery, Federal Project Officer

U.S. Department of Labor

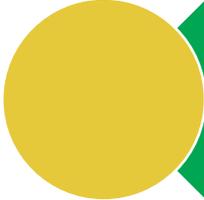

Employment & Training Administration

September 2025

Objectives: New TEGL 09-24

Funding

Application Process

Functions of Grant

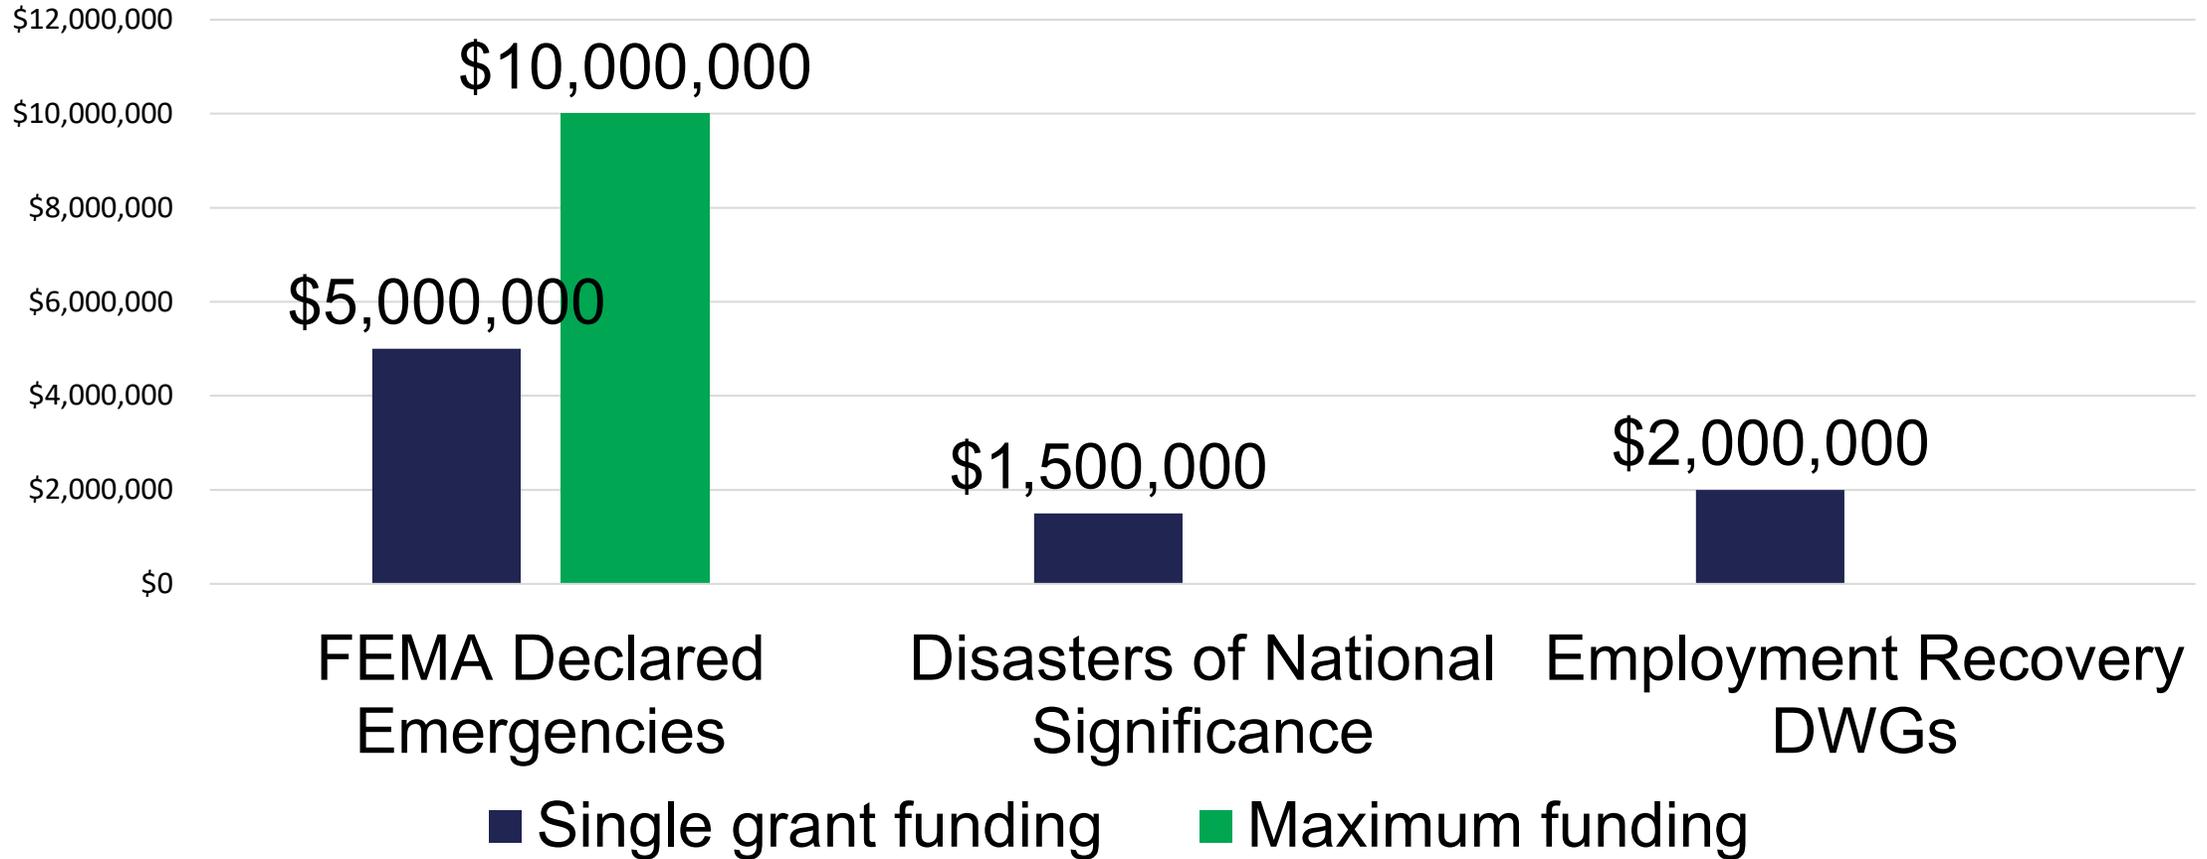

Opioid Guidance

Opioid Grants are also Disaster Recovery
Dislocated Worker Grants (DWGs)

Funding

Funding – A New Approach

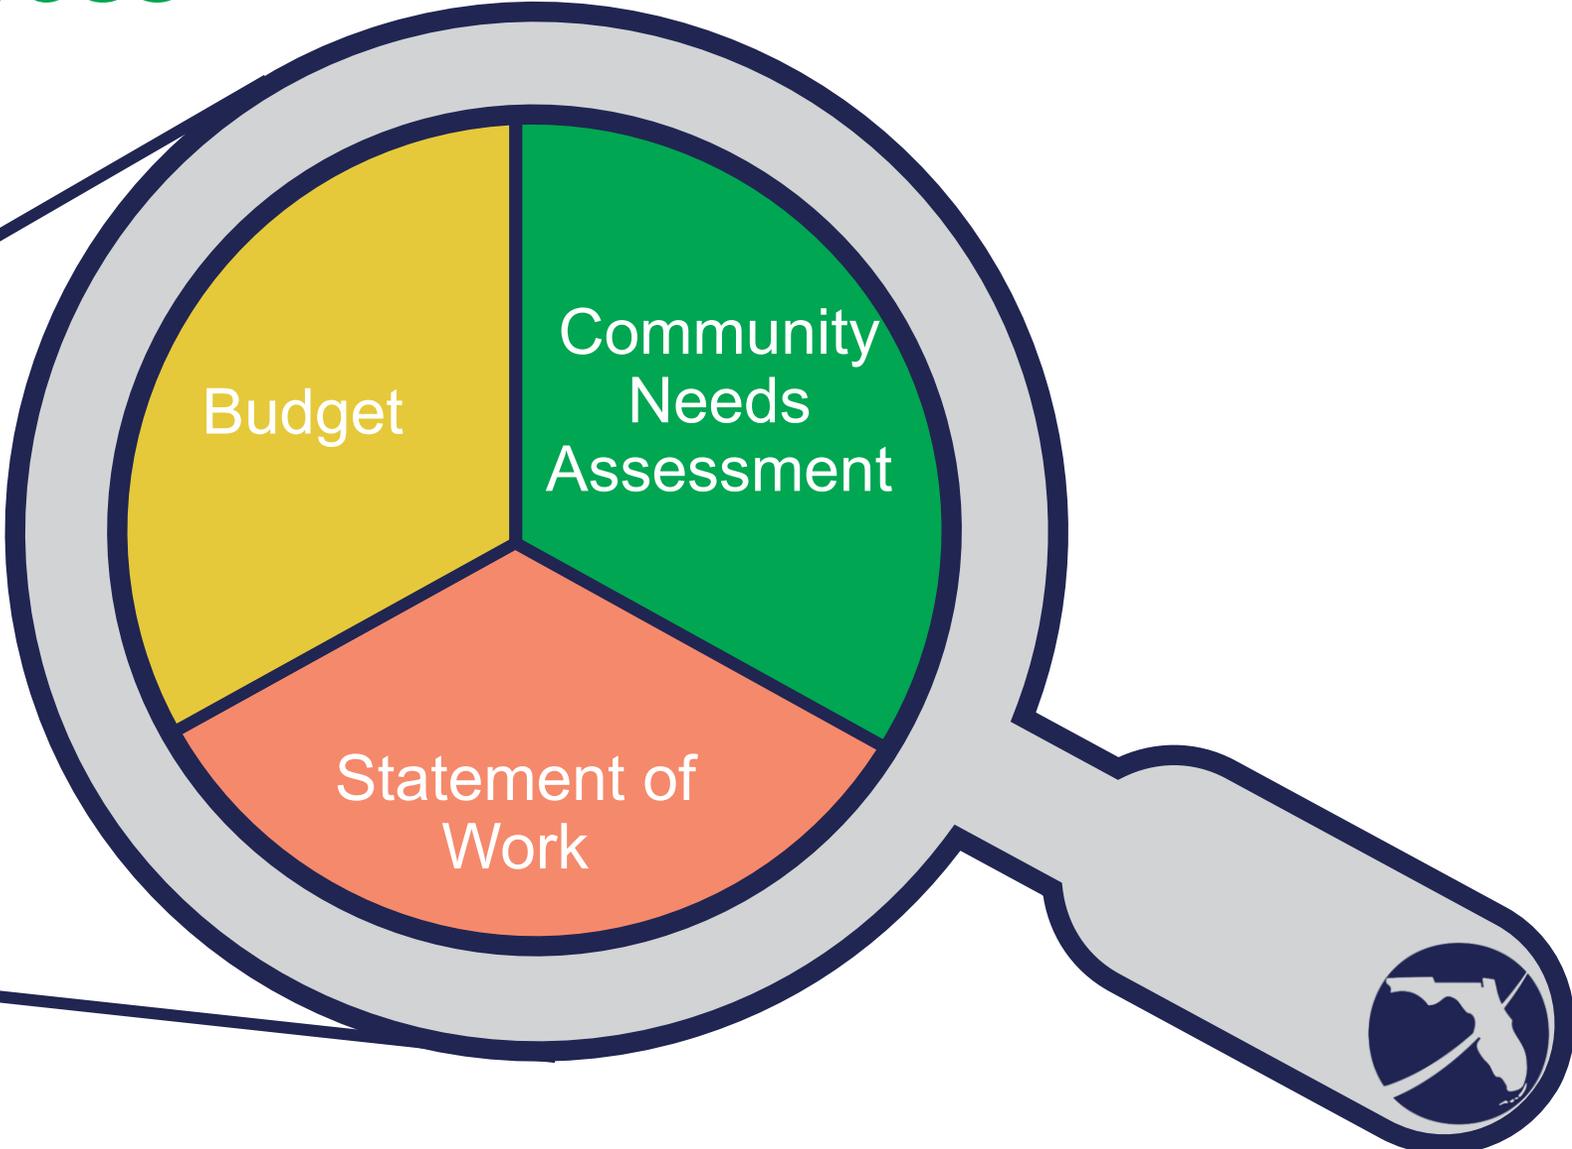

Application Process

 Qualifying
Disaster
Declaration

Application

Community Needs Assessment

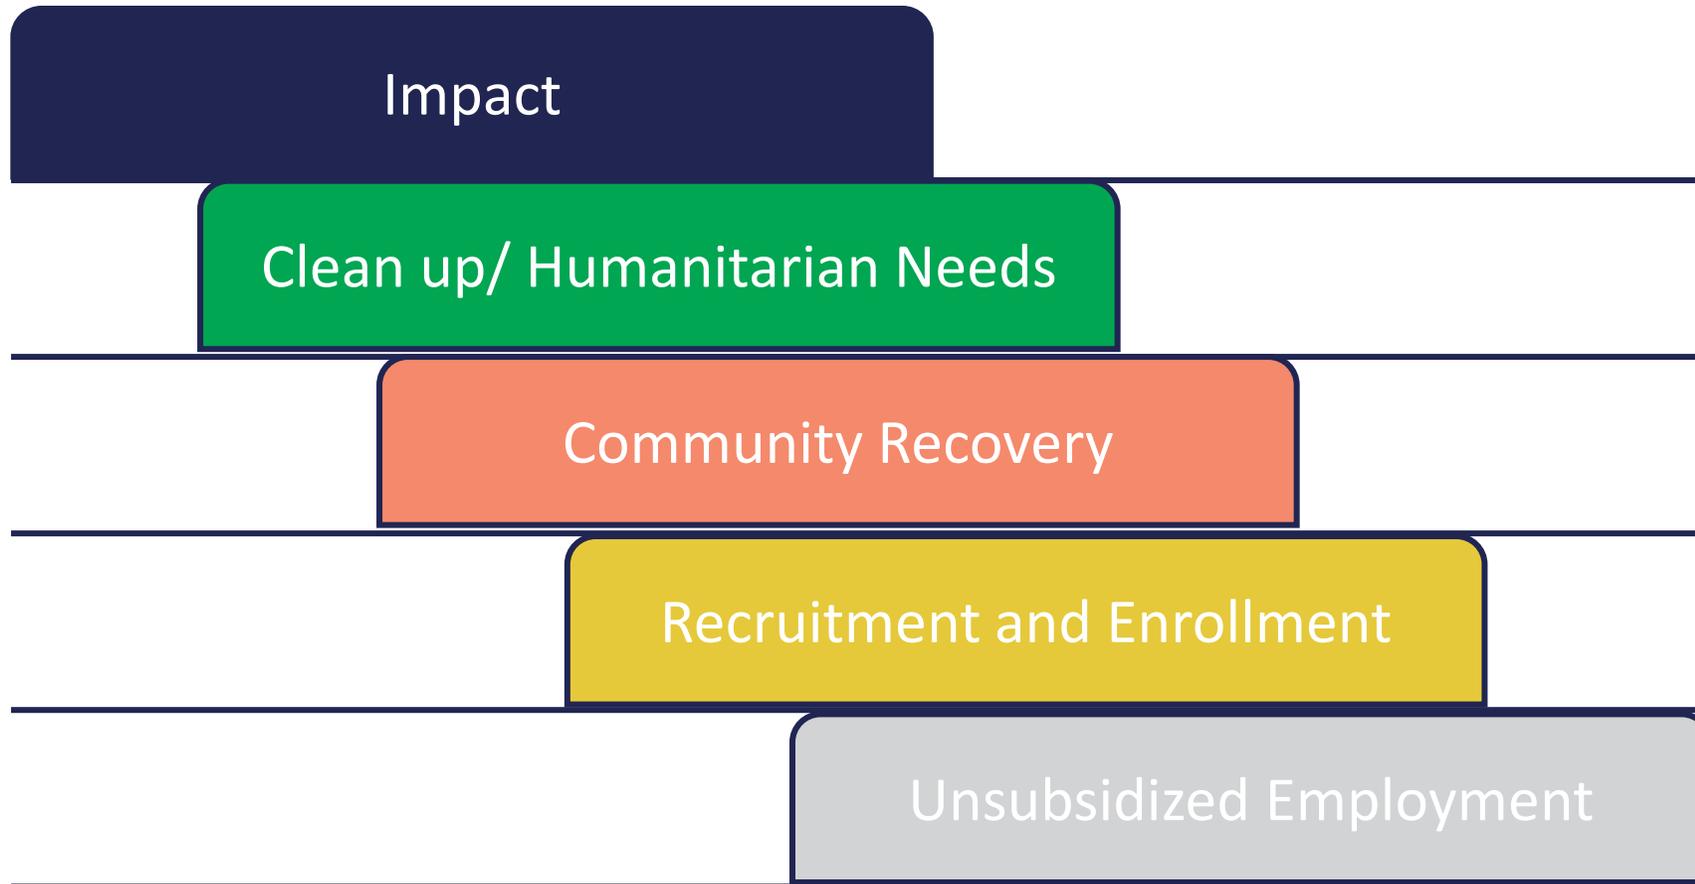

Connect with local partners

Develop new connections

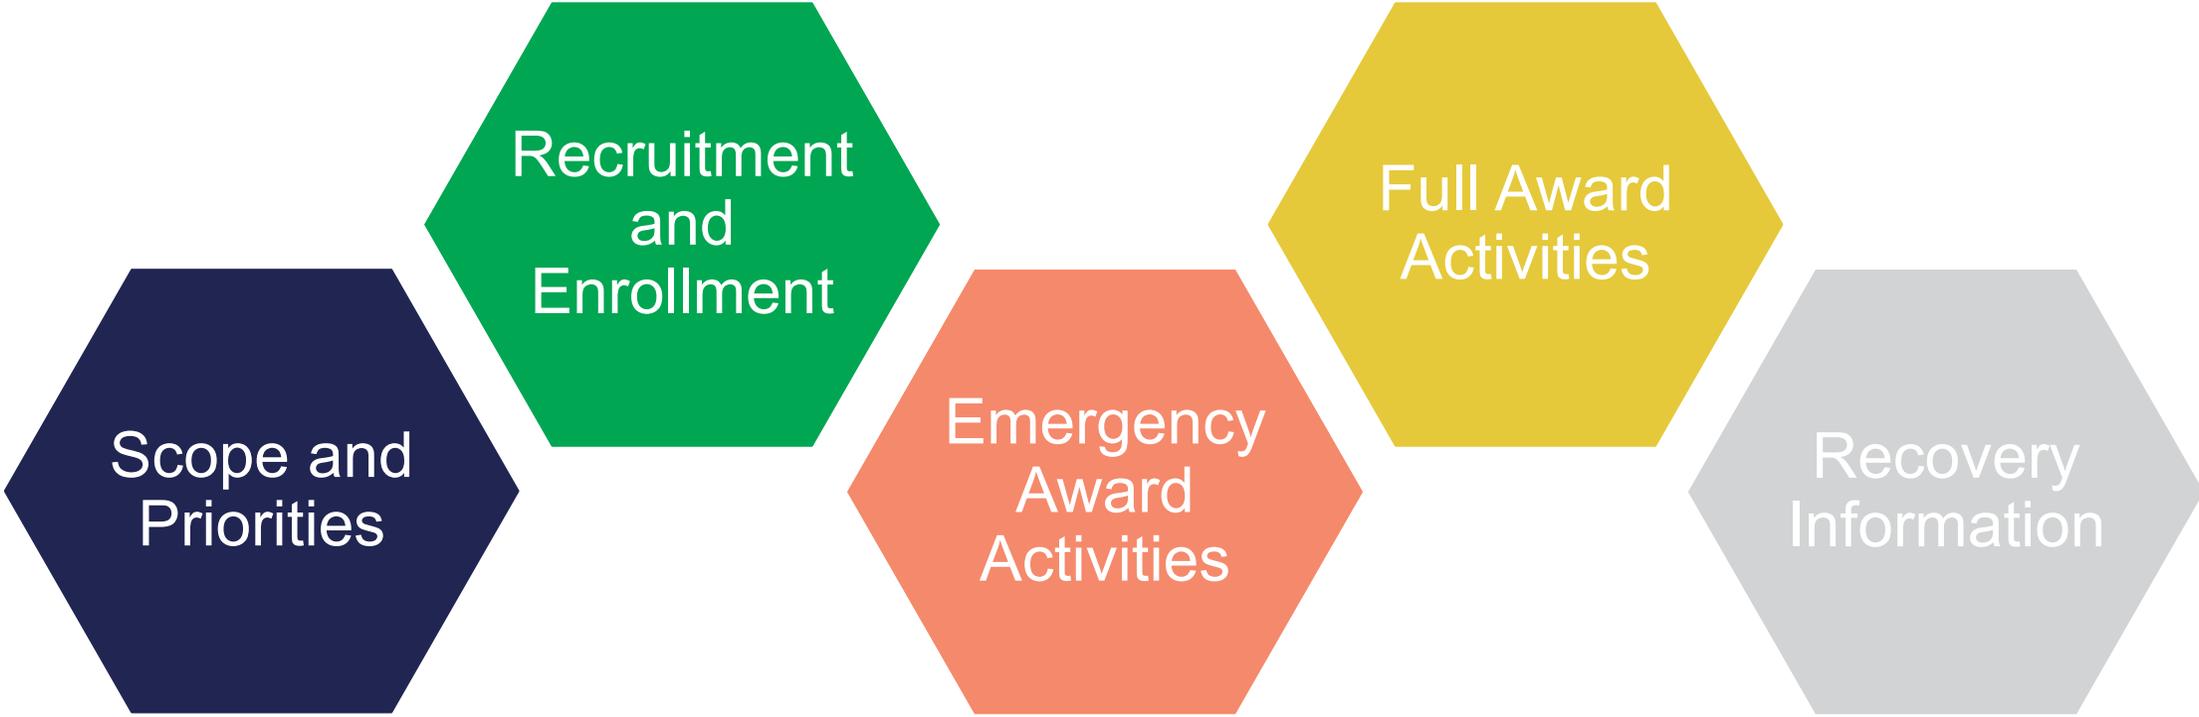

Be adaptable

Community Needs Assessment

Statement of Work

Budget – Spending and Enrollment Plan

- Temporary disaster-relief jobs
- Services including supportive services
- Employed at closure
- Total planned participants
- Temporary disaster-relief wages
- Fringe benefits, staffing fees, equipment rental
- Administrative and non-admin.

Budget Narrative

- Details of the calculated project costs per participant, per time frame
- Staffing agency fees showing the wage percentage
- Training and supportive service projections per participant
- Project management and oversight

Project Narrative

- Summary
- Project and Goals Objectives and Timeline
- Outreach and Enrollment
- Rapid Placement
- Case Management and Supportive Services
- Compliance, Oversight and Reporting

Abstract

Impact
summary

Activity
overview

Participant
description

Operator/
subrecipient
list

Expected outcomes and deliverables

Employment Project Examples

Demolition

Cleaning

Renovation

Humanitarian Assistance

Recovery

Reconstruction

Questions & Answers

Contact Us

Thank You.

If you have questions or comments about this presentation, please contact us.

Lorena Clark

Email: Lorena.Clark@Commerce.fl.gov

Office: Grants & Special Initiatives

SURVEY: Scan here

