

News Bulletins

Thursday, 27 August 2026 Bulletin.

GOOD AFTERNOON, MELBOURNE, I'M WILL DUNLOP.

++

At least 34 AUSTRALIANS are reported missing after a landslide ripped through the NEPAL and TIBET border region yesterday.

At least 160 people were killed, with hundreds more unaccounted for.

++

The homicide squad has found human remains in the search for MELBOURNE father KHALED MALAS, who investigators allege was shot in Melbourne's north-west last week.

++

A 48-year-old VICTORIAN MAN has been arrested after being accused of using two businesses to funnel about seven hundred thousand in NDIS funding into his own pocket.

++

Parents have been left scrambling for child care arrangements, after a childcare centre in MELBOURNE'S north-west has been liquidated.

++

The GREENS intend to launch a fresh bill to parliament next, the push for a 12 month import ban on smart glasses amid privacy concerns.

++

META has settled a landmark court battle over teen social media addiction, agreeing to pay TWENTY-THREE BILLION DOLLARS and adding child safety measures to FACEBOOK and INSTAGRAM

NOW ONTO SPORT

GEELONG has been hit with a MASSIVE ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY THOUSAND DOLLAR fine by the AFL over a concussion waiver in JAKE KOLODJASHNIJ'S contract.

++

The BULLDOGS and COLLINGWOOD are set to kick off Wildcard weekend tomorrow night at the MCG.

The DOGS look to regain TIM ENGLISH and AARON NAUGHTON, while the pies confident PAT LIPINSKI and ISAAC QUAYNOR will be fit to play.

Tuesday, 1 September 2026 Bulletin.

GOOD MORNING MELBOURNE, I'M WILL DUNLOP

++

Thirty-seven-year-old STEPFATHER, MICHAEL KEATS, is the first AUSTRALIAN among the victims of the NEPAL floods.

Forty-three AUSTRALIANS still remain unaccounted for, as the confirmed toll rose to nine hundred and thirty nine this morning

++

A seventy-five-year-old man has been charged with murder following the death of a woman in BACCHUS MARSH last week.

The man was arrested at the scene and appeared before MELBOURNE MAGISTRATES COURT yesterday.

++

ONE NATION has pledged to keep coal power running in VICTORIA, while also looking to lift the state's ban on nuclear energy if elected this NOVEMBER.

++

BEN CARROLL'S GOVERNMENT has taken 'full responsibility' for the state of the Victorian roads, LABOR announcing fresh plans to improve road maintenance and repair potholes.

++

SYDNEY SWANS star ISAAC HEENEY has deleted his INSTAGRAM account, as the fallout of the sexual assault scandal continues.

++

NOW ONTO SPORT

++

GEELONG'S TOM AKTINS adamant the club's concussion saga isn't distracting anyone, gearing up for their elimination final against CARLTON.

The CATS have managed just one win from their past five games against the BLUES, looking to turn that record around on FRIDAY night.

++

ADELAIDE has turned their attention to Saturday's final against the DOGS, but a defeat could prove disastrous for more than just the playing grouping

It's reported that a loss could see coach MATTHEW NICKS depart the Crows after seven seasons at the helm.

Tuesday, 15 September 2026 Bulletin.

GOOD MORNING MELBOURNE, I'M WILL DUNLOP

++

One of the SNOW-TOWN serial killers is set to be released after 27 years behind bars.

The SOUTH AUSTRALIAN Government sought to block the Parole Board's decision to release the man.

The SNOW-TOWN murders saw 11 people killed in SOUTH AUSTRALIA across the 90s, four men were convicted in the trials for the offences.

++

A 21-year-old man has been charged after allegedly attempting to escape police custody

The man tried climbing into the ceiling of the AUSTIN HOSPITAL in HEIDELBERG, he will face court later today.

++

The AUSTRALIAN UNIVERSITY sector has raised concerns over the potential damage of ONE NATION's new migration plan.

There are fears slashing international student places could force campuses to shut down and cost the economy millions.

++

NOW ONTO SPORT

++

GWS star TOBY GREENE's potential trade to GEELONG appears to be on hold, after the CATS missed out on ZAK BUTTERS to the BULLDOGS.

GREENE is now hesitant, with reports the BUTTERS decision played a key role in his decision.

The 32-year-old is still keen on a move back to VICTORIA.

++

The LIONS have secured their most important signature of the year, LOGAN MORRIS has signed a new deal with BRISBANE, turning his back on rival offers.

BRISBANE young gun LOGAN MORRIS has turned his back on rival clubs and inked a new deal at the LIONS.

The forward is now contracted until at least the end of 20-29.