Demo III

Black Gangrene Productions ·

Phantom maneuvers that foul the air and cast the utmost wretched specters of pure evil. Demo III calls forth from the nethermost abyss where the dissonant reverberations of delirious keys pervert the reality and affront warped revenants of splendid blackness and sibilant static.

Vrasësinerëzve stands for sheer dismay of anything human. It bursts into its malformation and abhors the listener in uncontrollable horror during 45 minutes where the abyssic demeanor of the voiceless pieces cast an utterly unique background for pure unadulterated depravity.
