Best Breakfast: McLain's Bakery

A local staple for more than 80 years, McLain's Bakery is a Kansas City classic with six locations (including two in Overland Park) serving up bakery favorites, including cakes, cookies, and pastries. McLain's also has a full-service cafe open for breakfast and lunch, offering a wide variety of fan favorites, including avocado toast, quiche, and various sandwiches. If you love a good coffee pairing with your morning croissant, you'll also love this place for its full-service espresso bar. Stop into one of their charming locations today, and you'll discover why Kansas City residents have been coming here for fresh baked goods since 1945.

Best Loaf of Bread: Farm to Market Bread Co.

Of course, when you think of bakeries, the first thing that comes to mind may be a fresh loaf of bread hot out of the oven. For some of the best bread in the area made fresh daily, consider buying a loaf from Farm to Market Bread Company. Farm to Market has been supplying stores and restaurants throughout Lenexa and the greater Kansas City area with fresh bread for over 40 years, making everything from sourdough and ciabatta bread to pretzel rolls and baguettes from scratch. What started as a small venture founded by Mark Friend and Fred Spompinato in the '80's to share their love of sourdough bread has grown into the largest fresh bread bakery in the area, supplying over 200 grocery stores and restaurants across KC every day. While they don't currently have a permanent storefront, you can find their bread at your local grocery store or Costco, and you can follow them on social media to find out about their pop-up locations.

Best Experience: Bloom Baking Company

For a truly unique experience that allows pastry lovers to see the magic happen, stop by Bloom Baking Company in Overland Park, where guests get to watch the bakers create beautiful cakes, macarons, and assorted pastries through the big window outside the store. Bloom Baking Co. brings the heart of Europe to Kansas City, serving up delicious, made-from-scratch pastries, breads, and cakes using locally sourced ingredients. Whether you're in the mood for a ham and cheese croissant, a decadent cinnamon roll, a gorgeous fruit tart, or you're looking for a custom-made wedding cake, there's perhaps no better choice than Bloom Baking Co.

Best Donut: LaMar's Donuts and Coffee

For many Americans, the perfect breakfast consists of a fresh donut and a hot cup of coffee. If you're looking for a great donut in Lenexa, LaMar's Donuts and Coffee is the obvious choice. Founded by Raymond LaMar, who began serving handmade donuts out of a converted gas station in Kansas City, LaMar's has been a local staple for over 90 years. While they now have multiple locations throughout the greater KS area (as well as across five states), they are still committed to tradition and making their timeless recipes from scratch with the freshest ingredients. Stop in for a warm donut and a cup of coffee, and you'll quickly realize why this popular spot has been featured on The Tonight Show, Good Morning America, and The Today Show.

Best Pastries: Ibis Bakery

Of course, no list of Lenexa bakeries would be complete without mentioning Ibis Bakery, located inside Black Dog Coffeehouse. Known for their pastries and unique breads (such as their black olive country loaf), Ibis Bakery is a true gem that has become a regular spot for Lenexa residents. In particular, they are known to serve the best pastries in town, and their decadent toffee chocolate chunk cookies are a must-try for any sweets lover. Whether you're looking for a fresh croissant or Danish, or you're looking to take a cup of coffee on the road, this local spot is sure to surprise you with their quality pastries and friendly customer service.
