QUICK HITS

KEEPING UP WITH THE PACK: The SeaWolves dropped a back-and-forth contest last night in a 13-10 loss to the Reading Fightin' Phils. Erie scored nine runs on twelve hits in the first three innings with home runs from Thayron Liranzo, Luke Shliger and Zyhre Hope setting the tone. Reading scored eight in the first three and jumped in front in the sixth. The SeaWolves managed to tie the game in the eighth but the Fightin' Phils scored three in the bottom half to secure the three-run win.

MAX EFFORT: Max Alba takes the mound for the SeaWolves in the final regular season game of the year. The right-hander is making his second start of the week after five innings of one-run ball on Tuesday in Erie's 6-1 win. Alba spent the first month and a half of the season on the injured list but has recovered to make 20 starts in his first full season at Double-A.

PLAYOFF PREVIEW: The SeaWolves open the 2026 Eastern League Playoffs at home on Tuesday night against the Richmond Flying Squirrels. Erie and Richmond hold the best two overall records in the Eastern League and the teams split the 18 games between them evenly with each side taking nine games.

RECORD SETTING SEASON: 2026 has been a season full of record-setting performances. The SeaWolves broke the 43-year old Eastern League stolen base record earlier this week. Peyton Graham set the SeaWolves single-season stolen base record and is now tied with Seth Stephenson with 66 stolen bases on the year. Stephenson became Erie's all-time stolen base leader with 73. Graham scored his 98th run in last night's game, placing his name atop the SeaWolves record book for runs scored in a season. Justice Bigbie set the SeaWolves longest hit-streak with a 23-game streak earlier this season and is set to win the first batting title in SeaWolves history. Lastly, Erie has scored 789 runs this season which tops SeaWolves history by more than 40 runs.

RUNNING OF THE WOLVES: Erie has swiped an Eastern League-best 281 bases through 136 games this season. The Howlers' stolen base feats have surpassed the 43-year-old Eastern League record of 272 set by Reading in 1983. The stolen base number is easily the best in a single season in Erie SeaWolves history, surpassing the 1999 SeaWolves who stole 180 bases. While setting the franchise record in July, Erie swiped a franchise-best nine bases in a single game against the Richmond Flying Squirrels. Erie surpassed last year's full-season total of 70 stolen bases in early May. Peyton Graham (66) and Seth Stephenson (66) have both surpassed the previous SeaWolves franchise record of 59 set by Trent Durrington in 1999, which now will be held by whichever SeaWolves player finishes with the most stolen bases this season.

SAILING INTO FAMILIAR WATERS: The SeaWolves are back into the Eastern League Playoffs for the fifth straight season, the longest stretch in franchise history. Erie won Eastern League titles in 2023 and 2024 before falling one game short of a three-peat in 2025. The SeaWolves have represented the Southwest Division in the Championship Series each of the last four seasons.

ALL YOU NEED IS HOPE: Zyhre Hope has broken out of his slump in a huge way over the past two weeks. During a career-long 14-game hit streak, Hope has slashed .397/.463/.655 with an 1.118 OPS. The 21-year-old has hit four home runs in that span and brought in 15 runs. Hope has driven in 111 runs on the season, more than anyone else in Double-A this season and has hit 29 home runs, the most of any player in the Tigers organization.

BATTING TITLE INCOMING FOR BIGBIE: Justice Bigbie is in pole position to win the Eastern League batting title entering the final day of the season. Bigbie hit .331 in his 90 games before his promotion to Triple-A Toledo. Bigbie will qualify for the title by six plate appearances, just clearing the required mark of 372.6. He will become the first SeaWolves player to ever win a batting title.

SECOND HALF DOMINANCE: It's been quite a second half for the SeaWolves. An 11-1 start to the half put Erie at the top of the standings and the team has continued to put up top-tier numbers compared to its Eastern League counterparts. The SeaWolves offense ranks in the top three in the league in batting average (.272), runs (416), hits (632), total bases (1071), doubles (122), triples (16), home runs (95), on-base percentage (.351), slugging percentage (.462) and OPS (.813) in the second half while the pitching staff is in the top three in ERA (4.23), runs allowed (323) and walks allowed (246).

A NEW HOPE: The SeaWolves got some reinforcements for the final stretch as top prospect Zyhre Hope joins the roster after he was acquired from the Dodgers in the blockbuster trade for Tarik Skubal. Hope is the No. 25 prospect in MLB per MLB Pipeline and has dominated the Double-A level in 2026. He posted a .293 average with an .899 OPS with 23 home runs and 87 RBI with Double-A Tulsa. Hope was named the Texas League Player of the Month in July after slashing .372/.439/.745 and leading the league in runs (24), hits (35), home runs (10), RBIs (28), slugging (.745) and OPS (1.184).

Leads all SeaWolves bullpen arms in appearances this season...Has allowed a run each of his lastfour outings...Turned in longest outing of the season and did not allow a run in 2.2 IP with only one strikeout(8/27)...Pitched his first outing completing multiple innings without allowing a run since 6/3 (7/31)...Gave up the walkoff run on a wild pitch that trickled to the backstop (7/21)...Took the loss despite pitching a scoreless ninth and almost recording the final out of the 10th inning before allowing the walk-off hit (7/18)...Gave up four hits and two runs in 0.2 IP, one of his most laborious outings of the season (7/9)...Earned the win, pitching the final two innings in Sunday's extra innings game...Earned second save in as many appearances in first outing in July (7/2)...Recorded strikeouts for five of his six outs recorded (6/28)...Leads all SeaWolves arms in appearances...Earned win, and tossed first scoreless outing since the 3rd (6/21)...Surrendered five runs in the ninth inning in 8-7 loss to Richmond (6/6)...Earned the win with two scoreless innings against the Flying Squirrels (6/3)...Turned in a scoreless outing against the Baysox on three separate occasions this week, each in late game situations (5/29)...3.1 IP scoreless in Altoona series...Two scoreless outings of two innings each during the Harrisburg road trip. Earned his first save of the season (5/10)...Dominated in his final outing of the week against the Baysox (5/3), earning his second win of the season...Earned his first win of the season in Sunday's victory, going multiple innings out of the bullpen for the first time

(4/19)...Did not allow an earned run in his fifth appearance of the season. Struck out both of the outs that he recorded (4/16)...Recorded the loss against Chesapeake, after the Baysox recorded a walk-off hit (4/9)...Started his 2026 season with back-to-back scoreless outings. Notched strikeouts on six of the seven outs he has recorded. Only allowed one hit and one walk through those two appearances... Spent 2025 in the Mexican League with Tecolotes de los Dos Laredos and Conspiradores de Queretaro... Made 30 appearances on the season and posted a 2.27 ERA in 31.2 innings and punched out 35 hitters to just 15 walks - showing a strong increase in the control of his electric fastball and wipeout slider... Reached Triple-A for the first time in the Orioles organization in the 2023 season, splitting 2023 and 2024 between Double-A Bowie and Triple-A Norfolk...

Started his career in the A's organization after signing an international free agent deal at 19 years old in 2015... Climbed to as high as Double-A Midland with the A's and was added to the 40-man roster in 2020 after a strong campaign with the RockHounds (1.88 ERA in 9 appearances in Double-A). Charles was unable to replicate those numbers after the COVID-break and elected release in the 2022 offseason and signing with Baltimore...Born on September 7, 1996 in Bani, Dominican Republic

Has surrendered multiple runs in three consecutive appearances...Allowed multiple runs in an outingfor the first time since July 9th when he allowed two runs against Harrisburg (Has now allowed*multiple runs in two of his last three outings)...*(8/26)...Finished off a blowout win against Altoona with a scoreless ninth inning (8/7)...Punched out multiple hitters in an outing for the first time since July 9 against

Harrisburg (7/28)...Surrendered one walk in his one inning of work in the Chesapeake series to this point

(7/23)...Earned hold in final game of Harrisburg series (7/12)...Made UPMC Park debut with 1.1 innings scoreless

(6/26)...Turned in his second consecutive scoreless outing, despite throwing each of his first seven pitches for balls (6/20)...Struck out three of the four outs that he recorded.

Only surrendered one hit (6/16)...Initially signed by the Tampa Bay Rays on July 2, 2019...Traded to the Philadelphia Phillies organization on December 10, 2025 in exchange for RHP Tommy McCollum...DFA'd by Philadelphia on April 8, 2026...Claimed off waivers by the Tigers on April 13, 2026...Has pitched nine innings over the course of nine appearances with Triple-A Toledo this season, with an 8.00 ERA...Has struck out ten batters this season, totaling just over a strikeout per inning...Curet was the minor league strikeout leader over the last couple of years and has held upper-90s velo for 120 innings. His changeup appeared to be taking off late in 2024...Consensus opinion is that he has major league level stuff, but has failed to maintain control and consistency at the Triple-A level. In 10 all-time appearances at Double-A, he has a 1.62 ERA.

Worked as an opener to deliver two scoreless innings with three strikeouts (9/5)...Worked three scoreless innings in relief, allowing just one baserunner via a walk (8/26)...Collected his first save of the season in his second opportunity (8/20)...Worked as an opener for the third time this season, allowing one run (8/11)...Struck out five of the six outs he recorded (8/4)...Has allowed two runs in two of his first three appearances back from the IL (8/2)...Gave up two HRs in the loss to Binghamton, in two innings of work out of the bullpen (4/24)...Allowed three earned runs in an appearance out of the bullpen in game one of Sunday's doubleheader (4/19)...Surrendered two runs in 3 IP against Harrisburg in game one. Settled in as the outing went on, with a scoreless frame in his final inning of work (4/14)...Earned the win in a comeback 13-8 win over Chesapeake, after entering the game out of the bullpen. Tossed 2.2 innings scoreless. With just one hit and three strikeouts (4/8)...Went 2.1 innings in his 2026 debut against Richmond (4/4) and gave up 1 run on a hit and a walk while striking out four...32 of his 34 appearances in the 2025 season were with High-A West Michigan. He also pitched one game in Erie and one game in Toledo. Only four of those 34 appearances were starts, and all of those came with the Whitecaps. Finished the season with an ERA of 2.55 combined between the three levels, along with a 0.934 WHIP across 70.2 IP. Seems that the possible conversion to a starter this year is simply out of necessity, because of injuries, and lack of pitching depth at the AA level. The two spot appearances he made in both AAA & AA were his debuts at each respective level. This season would be the first time that he would have ever begun the season in AA. Allowed just one earned run in his final 13 outings of the season...Had 26 appearances, all with West Michigan. 21 of those outings were starts. Threw 103.1 IP that season, by far the most of his professional or college career. Finished the season with a 3.22 ERA and a 1.132 WHIP...Signed with the Tigers as a free agent in the offseason. Spent most of the year with Lakeland, where he started in 8 of the 14 games which he appeared in. Pitched to a 3.38 ERA with the Flying Tigers. The highest of any season in his pro career...While at Valparaiso, achieved All-MVC Second Team recognition... Led the MVC in strikeouts with 110 while ranking 15th nationally... Led the conference and ranked second in the nation with 14.08 strikeouts per nine innings... Finished the season fifth in program history with 260 career strikeouts and also ranked fifth on the program's single-season strikeout list...Was not drafted, and signed with the Mahoning Valley Scrappers of the MLB Draft League. Appeared in just two games with the Scrappers that season. .Born March 18, 2000 in Libertyville, IL

Pitched his longest outing of long relief this season with four runs allowed over 3.1 IP (9/12)...Earned his first save of the season with 2.2 IP scoreless to finish the game on Friday night (8/28)...Has turned in back-to-back scoreless appearances after allowing runs in six consecutive outings (8/23)...Briefly called up to Triple-A Toledo and pitched in one appearance against Louisville, allowing one earned run (7/28)...Allowed one run after giving up a triple on a ball that was lost in the smokey sky (7/17)...Earned the win after entering in relief of Sears on Saturday (6/27)...Finished off Jack Flaherty's final inning of work without allowing a run (6/23)...Two scoreless innings against Harrisburg in his first outing of the series (6/19)...Blown save opportunity in Saturday loss to Akron (6/13)...Bounced back in a big way with two perfect innings to send the game to extra innings in 9-8 loss to Richmond (6/5)...Struggled for really the first time out of the bullpen, surrendering three runs on a pair of home runs against Richmond (6/2)...Turned in a scoreless inning in his return to Erie from West Michigan, has been increasingly effective out of the bullpen (5/29)...Began the season as a starter, but transitioned to the bullpen at the outset of May. Has only allowed two runs to score in six appearances for the month. Has not allowed a hit in back-to-back outings (5/21)...Earned the win in game one of Sunday's DH (5/17)...Tossed two scoreless innings in relief with three strikeouts (5/12)...Continued his strong work in the SeaWolves bullpen with a pair of innings and a second win against the Harrisburg Senators (5/6)...Entered in his first appearance in relief against the Baysox in Saturday's win. Pitched 3 innings scoreless, with one hit, two strikeouts and no runs allowed (5/2)...Third start of the season was suspended after just 1.2 innings due to rain...Allowed just one hit, but walked five in his second outing of the season, which lasted 3.1 innings. Turned the game over still scoreless (4/12)...Pitched 2.2 innings in his first start in the Tigers organization, surrendering four unearned runs in the loss against Richmond (4/5)...Joined the Tigers organization in May 2025 and quickly rose up to High-A West Michigan where he spent the majority of the 2025 season... Appeared 19 times with the Whitecaps and posted a flawless 5-0 record with two saves and a 2.28 ERA, striking out 29 batters and walking 10... Overall on the season, he finished with a 6-1 record and an ERA of 1.82, 43 strikeouts and 11 walks... The Tigers moving Fregio to the bullpen has unlocked another level after spending the 2024-25 winter in the Australian Baseball League with the Perth Heat, continuing to flash the high strikeout potential that he showed in 2024 with the Washington Wild Things of the Frontier League (90 strikeouts in 19 starts)... Attended Saint Leo University in Florida and picked up 8 wins in each of his final two seasons with the Lions before graduating in 2023... Born on May 5, 2000 in Wesley Chapel, Florida.

Played 99 games, entirely with High-A West Michigan last season. Led the team in BA, HRs and RBIs for players that appeared in at least 40 games with the team...Appeared in the starting lineup for the Tigers Spring Breakout game against the Pittsburgh Pirates...2025 was the third consecutive season that Pacheco had spent a majority of his season with the Whitecaps. It was significantly his best statistical season with the club, he finished the year slashing .258/.388/.499, with 17 HRs and 68 RBI...Pacheco was a full-season performer, setting career highs in home runs, RBIs and OPS while cutting his strikeout rate by 5 percent and nearly doubling his walk rate. He was named the Midwest League's Most Valuable Player at season's end...Pacheco played 68 games of his 71 total with West Michigan during the 2024 season. He finished the season hitting .220 with 7 HRs and 35 RBI...During the 2023 season, Pacheco also played all 119 games he appeared in with West Michigan. He slashed .211/.283/.352 during the year with a .635 OPS...Pacheco starts Erie as one of its highest draft picks on the Opening Day Roster. He was drafted by the Tigers in the 2nd round of the 2021 MLB Draft out of Friendswood High School in Friendswood, TX...As a high school draft pick he has always displayed impressive raw power at the plate, and his glove has steadily improved throughout his pro career. The key to his ascension this year will be to continue to cut down on swing and miss, while settling into the jump up to Double-A...Born November 18, 2002 in Friendswood, TX.
