

Southeast Oklahoma

Set my soul aglow.

I'll admit, I didn't quite know what to expect on our family trip. But the beauty I saw? It lit a fire in me. Was it the golden leaves of Talimena crackling beneath our feet? Waking up to crisp autumn air and the aroma of last night's s'mores? Beavers Bend's towering timbers made us feel so small. Like the stresses back home might be small, too, in the grand scheme of it all. Our laughter echoed off the walls at Robbers Cave, as we pretended to be outlaws hiding behind the boulders. Taking time to reconnect with nature? It rekindled my sense of wonder.
