

MATCH ANALYSIS

Zimbru Chisinau vs Milsami Orhei

Date: 18 April 2025

Competition: Moldovan Super Liga

Final Score: Zimbru 3-1 Milsami

MATCH OVERVIEW

Zimbru established a high tempo from the opening minutes through aggressive pressing and sustained possession. The 3-1 scoreline reflected their overall superiority, although Milsami remained competitive at certain stages, particularly from set pieces.

The match can be divided into three distinct phases:

0-30 Minutes - Zimbru Dominance

Zimbru controlled possession and applied an aggressive, organised press, consistently forcing Milsami into difficult situations.

30-45 Minutes - Milsami Response

Zimbru's intensity began to drop following their early pressing efforts. Milsami became more active and created opportunities as a result.

Second Half - Tactical Shift

Zimbru reduced their pressing intensity and adopted a more pragmatic, transition-oriented approach. They effectively exploited the space behind Milsami's high defensive line.

ZIMBRU - TEAM ANALYSIS

Playing Style

A hybrid approach combining positional control in possession with direct transitions through the left flank and long diagonal passes.

First half: Dominant, possession-oriented approach

Second half: Pragmatic, counter-attacking approach

Key Strengths

- Aggressive and organised pressing during the opening phase
- Effective use of width through the left-back
- Short corner routines
- Strong tactical adaptability throughout the match
- Good occupation of attacking zones

Areas for Development

- Physical fatigue became evident after approximately 30–35 minutes of sustained pressing
- Increased nervousness when attempting to manage the game after taking a 3–0 lead

MILSAMI — TEAM ANALYSIS

Playing Style

Milsami primarily relied on transitions, second balls, physical duels and set pieces. They attempted to build through positional possession but lacked a consistent structure.

The team appeared more comfortable when the game became physical and transition-oriented rather than when required to sustain possession.

Key Strengths

- Quality set-piece delivery and rehearsed routines
- Individual quality in certain attacking players
- Confident penalty execution

Areas for Development

- Significant difficulties playing out under pressure, with the goalkeeper frequently forced to play long
- Poor midfield spacing, with players often positioned either too high or too deep
- Large spaces left behind the defensive line
- Limited adaptation to Zimbru's pace in attacking transitions
- Poor defensive reading during key goal-scoring situations

PLAYERS OF INTEREST

VLADIMIR FRATEA

Zimbru Chisinau | Attacking Midfielder / No. 8

Match Rating: 8/10

Fratea was the standout performer of the match and played a decisive role in breaking down Milsami's defensive structure during the second half.

Key Observations

- Confident dribbler capable of finding space around the penalty area
- Delivered the assist for the second goal with a precise through ball between the lines
- Made an intelligent run behind the defensive line before creating the penalty for the third goal
- Successfully converted the penalty with a Panenka
- Demonstrated good control of the game's tempo
- Consistently found teammates in advanced areas
- Showed confidence in making unconventional decisions under pressure

Assessment

A technically capable attacking player with good vision, personality and the ability to influence games in the final third.

Potential Roles: Advanced No. 8 / Attacking Midfielder

ABU DOSSO

Match Rating: 7/10

Dosso was central to Zimbru's attacking play down the left side during the first half.

Key Observations

- Consistently progressed attacks through passing and forward runs
- Comfortable carrying the ball over distance
- Showed confidence taking responsibility in possession
- Maintained good defensive discipline following attacking involvement
- Demonstrated strong stamina and covered significant ground throughout the half
- Developed effective combinations with teammates on the left flank

Assessment

A modern attacking full-back / wing-back with a strong physical profile, willingness to contribute in both phases and the ability to maintain his defensive responsibilities after advancing.

Key Attribute: Two-way work rate and consistency

SORIN CHELEA

Match Rating: 6/10

Despite Milsami's defeat, Chelea was their most impressive individual performer and showed several qualities worth monitoring.

Key Observations

- Delivered a high-quality set piece in the 21st minute, creating a headed opportunity that struck the crossbar
- Demonstrated confidence in 1v1 situations
- Attempted to create opportunities through unconventional attacking decisions
- Showed excellent work rate and consistently contributed defensively
- Covered significant ground in both attacking and defensive phases

Key Limitation

Chelia received limited service throughout the match, which restricted his overall influence. His lack of involvement appeared to be more reflective of the team's attacking structure than his individual performance.

Assessment

One of the few Milsami players to demonstrate clear individual quality. His work rate, 1v1 ability and willingness to create make him worthy of further observation.

OVERALL SCOUTING CONCLUSION

The match highlighted contrasting tactical approaches between the two sides. Zimbru demonstrated greater tactical flexibility, moving from an aggressive pressing approach in the first half to a more pragmatic transition-based game after the interval.

From an individual scouting perspective, Vladimir Fratya stood out as the strongest player of interest due to his technical quality, vision and ability to influence the game in advanced areas.

Abu Dosso also demonstrated an attractive two-way full-back profile, while Sorin Chelia showed enough individual quality to justify further observation despite limited involvement.

Recommended Follow-Up:

1. Vladimir Fratea - Priority for further scouting
2. Abu Dosso - Further assessment
3. Sorin Chelia - Re-watch in a more possession-oriented attacking context
