Company Profile

Introduction

Prado Rugs is one of the leading Egyptian manufacturer and exporter of machine woven rugs to more than 20 countries worldwide. We, at Prado Rugs, offer modern yet timeless products by integrating avant-garde designs with refined materials.

History

Named after a museum considered to have one of the world's finest art collections, Prado Rugs came to light when a group of investors saw the opportunity of combining the technological advancement of weaving with the cost effectiveness present in Egypt today. Prado Belgium was transported to a new location in Egypt, namely Sadat City.

With a touch of art and modernity, we let your imagination become reality through highly trained craftsmen that have been in the field of weaving for more than 25 years. With our dedication to deliver high-quality rugs at competitive prices and fully satisfy our customers, we are able to produce any size or design with our electronic looms that give us the privilege to produce the latest fashionable colors, designs and trends in all markets.

Mission + Vision

Prado Rugs strives to continue developing designs that captures classical beauty with its 100% New Zealand wool line. With our dedication to deliver high-quality rugs at competitive prices and fully satisfy our customers, we aim to highlight your space and furnish it with an art that you can walk on.

With Prado, you will add an exquisite style, warmth, and comfort to your place.

Awards & Recognition

Our synthetic rug collections, certified by Woolmark, range from a high density, fine yarn count weave to a more affordable one. With an experienced and dedicated workforce, Prado Rugs is constantly evolving to meet the market's upcoming trends.

Our Products
