TOURS & DESTINATIONS

Spiritual Tours

St. Catherine & Mountain Sinai

Saint Catherine's Monastery, a Greek Orthodox monastery situated on Mount Sinai more than 5,000 feet (1,500 meters) above sea level in a narrow valley north of Mount Mūsā in the Sinai Peninsula.

The Greek Orthodox monastery of the God-trodden Mount Sinai is located at the very place where God appeared to Moses in the Burning Bush, beneath the Mount of the Decalogue. In the providence of God, this is the oldest continuously-inhabited Christian monastery, with a history that can be traced back over seventeen centuries. The monastery predates the divisions of the Christian world, and its origins extend to late antiquity.

Route of the Holy Family

Egypt was vastly traveled by some of the greatest prophets, like Abraham, Joseph, and Moses. Following these prophets on their paths is the most interesting and enlightening journey, that fills hearts, minds, and spirits with the flavor of the challenge and Holiness that they experienced while following God's word.

A very important path to follow is the visit of the Holy family to Egypt. Characterized by a very special story: with Joseph and Mary carrying baby Jesus fleeing to Egypt, thus avoiding the killing of young boys, entering from North Sinai, and moving all the way up the Nile valley to Asyut in Upper Egypt. This is by far the most amazing journey through the Holy land of Egypt.

"Behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word, for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him ".

(Matthew 2:13)

And a journey begins...

Historic Monasteries

WADI EL NATROUN

In the earliest decades of Christianity, the desert expanses of Wadi el-Natroun became the site of anchoretic settlement and, later, of many monasteries, in spiritual commemoration of the Holy Family's passage through the Valley. Al Syrian Monastery in Wadi el Natroun is one of the places of residence of the Holy Family.

The Door of Prophecies or Gate of Prophecies is a large door inside the Syrian Monastery, of Wadi El Natrun (Natron Valley) in Egypt, that features symbolic diagrams depicting the past and the future of the Christian faith through the eyes of Christian monks of the tenth century.

THE MONASTERY OF ST. ANTHONY in the Eastern Desert

The monastery is dedicated to St. Anthony the Great, the father of monasticism, the renowned 3rd-century anchorite. There are chapels dedicated to Saints Seraphim of Sarov, Demetrios of Thessalonica, John the Baptist, George the Great Martyr, Nicholas the Wonderworker, and Panteleimon the Healer. The main church is dedicated to Saints Anthony and Nectarios the Wonderworker.

THE MONASTERY OF ST. PAUL in the Eastern Desert

St. Paul's Monastery (Deir Mar Boulos) in the Eastern Desert of Egypt is an ancient monastery dedicated to the hermit St. Paul of Thebes, who moved to this spot in the wilderness around 250 AD. Originally built in the 5th century, the monastery now has three churches and contains many important manuscripts.

Born into a wealthy family, Paul abandoned civilization and fled the Decian persecution around 250 AD, when he was only 16 years old, to become a hermit in the Eastern Desert. The hermit is said to have been fed a half-loaf of bread each day by a raven. In the most famous episode of his life, Paul was visited by the desert monk St. Anthony around 345 AD. Nearing the end of his own life of austerity, Anthony had become tempted by vanity in thinking he was the first of the Desert Fathers. So God led him to meet one who had preceded him.
