APARTMENT SEEKING

First time renter seeking a new home! I am a 23-year-old female that has decided to venture out on her own. I am hoping to rent either a one-bedroom or a bachelor apartment close to grocery stores and a bus line.

The bulk of my free time is spent quietly at home. I enjoy cooking and crafts, and don't have any noisy hobbies. No need to worry, no drum set here! I do smoke, however, so that will a factor in deciding on a place to live.

I am ready to supply first and last month's rent upfront and can provide assurance of my employment status. If you have an apartment for rent and would like to be involved in giving someone a good start, then please contact me. Please specify the size (bachelor/1bdrm), rental amount, and what it includes. Thank you!!

SEEKING CHILDCARE

Do you love kids? If so, I have a few for you!

Looking for a modern-day Mary Poppins to provide care to our brood of four.

We have three sweet boys (6, 8, 10) and one adorable girl (3). The boys will be at school most of the day, except for about an hour before we get home. Duties will include light cleaning, preparing lunch, outings, etc.

Pay is negotiable.
