MAIN HOTSPOTS

Discover the three most captivating cities of Central Asia – a journey through Silk Road grandeur, ancient charm, and the vibrant pulse of modern life.

SAMARKAND — THE HEART OF THE SILK ROAD

A city of timeless splendor where turquoise domes meet golden sunsets. Explore Registan Square, the architectural masterpiece of the Silk Road; step into the spiritual calm of Gur-e-Amir, the resting place of Tamerlane; and wander through the mosaic-lined corridors of Shah-i-Zinda. Samarkand blends legend, faith, and artistry into a single breathtaking landscape.

BUKHARA — THE LIVING MUSEUM OF CENTRAL ASIA

Walk through centuries of history in a city where time seems to pause. Sip tea beside the ancient pond at Lyabi-Hauz, admire the majestic Kalyan Minaret, and lose yourself among the domed trading streets of the old bazaar. Bukhara radiates an intimate, authentic charm – a living chronicle of trade, tradition, and faith.

ALMATY — GATEWAY TO THE MOUNTAINS

Nestled at the foot of the Tien Shan mountains, Almaty offers a seamless blend of natural beauty and urban sophistication. Ride the Kok-Tobe cable car for sweeping city views, visit Medeu, the world's highest ice rink, and escape to the turquoise waters of Big Almaty Lake. In the evening, unwind at Arbat Street cafés, where mountain air meets modern life.
