

K.B. Mensah

Communication Arts major, Political Science minor @ Salisbury University

EXPERIENCE

Newsy/Scripps Washington Bureau — Politics Intern

National Outlet

Summer 2019

I helped coordinate Newsy's political campaign, as well as assisted with on-location shoots and in-studio interviews. I also wrote scripts for "The Why," the nightly primetime show on Newsy, and produced my own news package.

Delmarva Media Group/Salisbury Daily Times — Freelance Contributor

Circulation: ~20,000

April 2019 - present

I contribute features and community-focused human interest stories. In addition to writing, I also take on photo assignments.

The Flyer, Salisbury University — News Editor

September 2018 - Present

My main responsibilities are developing pitches for news stories, writing news stories and editing news stories that I have assigned to other writers. In addition, I also handle on-campus news and sports photo assignments.

EDUCATION

Salisbury University, Salisbury, MD — B.A. in Communication Arts, minor in Political Science

January 2018 - December 2020

Montgomery College, Rockville, MD

Fall 2015 - December 2017

A.S. in Communication Arts

Professional Affiliations

Society of Professional Journalists

(202) 597-1548

k.mensah94@outlook.com

www.kbmensah.com

SKILLS

Photography

Writing for online/print

Writing for broadcast

Creative story ideas

Social media

On-camera reporting

REFERENCES

Jeremy Cox, professor at Salisbury University

Phone: (443) 783-6717

Email: jgcox@salisbury.edu

Phil Pruitt, Director of Digital Content at Scripps

Phone: (202) 430-7638

Email:

phil.pruitt@scripps.com

Jennifer Cox, professor at Salisbury University

Phone: (202) 430-7638

Email: jbcox@salisbury.edu

OTHER ROLES

Social Media Coordinator for Salisbury University's Society of Professional Journalists chapter

