A WHOLE NEW WORLD OF PRODUCTIVITY FOR YOUR WORKFORCE.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25TH | 11AM EST

Dear [First Name, Last Name],

If you're like most businesses today, at least some of your employees work remotely. They work in different locations, on a variety of different devices. This, coupled with increased pressure to work more efficiently, effectively, and collaboratively to meet the growing demands of your customers, can be a strain, to put it lightly.

We have the answer. Actually, you do already.

As a subscriber to Microsoft 365, you have access to SharePoint, a single, integrated, and incredibly powerful platform designed to tackle this very problem and many others. In fact, 78 percent of Fortune 500 companies who are using SharePoint to manage, share, and repurpose content, are reporting a wide array of benefits including:

1. Increased productivity - Initiating, tracking, and reporting business activities can be streamlined to allow employees more time to focus on other tasks.
2. Effortless collaboration - Employees stay connected through the entire project life cycle.
3. Time and cost savings - Knowledge flows more freely, boosting organization efficiency.
4. Simplified information exchange - Customize your site to streamline your team's work.
5. Unparalleled security - Effortless efficiency across all devices.

Learn how to put SharePoint to work for your business. Join us on Wednesday, September 25th, at 11am EST for a 45 minute webinar, A Quick Start to SharePoint Utilization. This webinar will highlight all the key benefits, show you a smart path to migration and implementation, and brief you on how quickly you can have your organization up and running with SharePoint.  RAZOR TECHNOLOGY  SharePoint

Dear [First Name, Last Name],

The digital age is dying. Innovation is slowing. You're competition is not a threat to you. Employees, customers, vendors and investors are patiently waiting for all of the information they need from your organization to accomplish their goals everyday. Because everything is cool and there is no pressure to perform at a higher level, your boss is eager to see what you do next but TOTALLY supportive of your uncertainty and "wait and see" approach to solving your team's collaboration, process, and multi-location work challenges. There is no reason to explore the proven potential of the leading all in one platform for collaboration and improved productivity and workforce efficiency that is already part of the Microsoft Office365 software on every computer in your organization.

OR...

You need to take action right now and be the person who unleashes the productivity and collaboration beast that is SharePoint. Your people are tired of going to war with whiteboards, reams of paper, and hand scribbled post it notes. They need a hero. They need someone to lead the charge and launch the platform that will enable them to be more innovative, more collaborative, more agile, or more informed.

You just need to make it happen. And, it's easier than you think.

Give us 45 minutes and we'll show you A Quick Start to SharePoint. This webinar on Wednesday, September 25th, at 11am EST will highlight all the key benefits, show you a smart path to migration and implementation, and brief you on how quickly you can have your organization up and running with SharePoint. David Rosenthal, of Razor Techn will show you how the technology you already possess within Office365 can be quickly implemented and scaled at your pace to drive measurable improvements across your organization.
