

Feel the comfort of home. 30,000 feet above yours.

From a warm smile to a piping hot towel, you'll feel right at home the moment you board. In fact, our specially designed seats allow for more legroom. Along with adjustable headrests to let you unwind in any position. Especially one you're most comfortable in. It's just one of the lengths we go to.

For once, the extras come standard.

Whether it's a greater choice of meals and beverages, priority check-in and boarding, or a deeper recline in your seat. Our Premium Economy Class focuses on the little additions that truly matter. And it all starts with a glass of crisp champagne to celebrate your flight.

It's just one of the lengths we go to.

The only additions that count.

Whether it's a greater choice of meals and beverages, priority check-in and boarding, or a deeper recline in your seat. Our Premium Economy Class focuses on the little additions that truly matter. And it all starts with a glass of crisp champagne to celebrate your flight.

It's just one of the lengths we go to.

Nothing's as vast as the sky. But we're as close as it gets.

The first thing you'll notice on board the Singapore Airlines Business Class is your seat. For one, it's the widest in its class. Upholstered in soft leather, it even unfolds into a fully flat bed. So you can work and unwind with all the space you need. It's just one of the lengths we go to.