Dear Whomever it May Concern,

I am writing this letter to wholeheartedly recommend Aidan Williams for the Music Writer's Lab mentoring program. I have worked with Aidan for two years as his lecturer and editor in his studies in the RMIT Journalism program, and in those years I have witnessed Aidan's passion, intelligence and reliability in tackling journalism.

I love the local music scenes in Melbourne, and Aidan is definitely someone I see not only as a student journalist but also a reliable source of information and a journalistic colleague to help me find out what's going on in the music industry in Melbourne.

Aidan also has a consistent, professional mindset and with the right mentorship, and the Music Writer's Lab seems to be a great one for him, he will thrive with his writing and I hope we will get to read more stories based on his knowledge and passion for music - things that I have enjoyed from reading his stories and in my chats with him in and out of classroom.

By accepting Aidan into your program, you will not only gain an amazing mentee, but I truly believe you will play a role in developing one of the best minds we have in Australia right now when it comes to writing and thinking about music in Australia. Just to reiterate, I am more than happy to recommend Aidan. I will also be happy to expand on any of these points if you have questions. My details are below.

Best Regards,

Tito Ambyo
