

YOUR PERSONAL GUIDE TO A BETTER HOME LOAN EXPERIENCE

Tim Merritt has been turning the dream of home ownership into a reality for countless individuals in Southeastern Michigan. As a loan officer with Ross Mortgage, he puts 26 years of industry experience to work, finding ideal financing solutions to fit each customer's specific needs. Working with first time buyers as they close on their new home are what Tim values as some of his proudest moments.

Going above and beyond, this seasoned loan officer takes great pride in making himself available to his customers and helping them to achieve their home financing goals. Tim's commitment to his customers has earned him several industry awards for service excellence.

"If I believe in the borrower, I will not quit working for them."
- Tim Merritt, Mortgage Consultant

Educating prospective homebuyers on available financing options and helping them choose the perfect loan are what he considers the best part of the job. Tim specializes in a variety of loan products, including FHA loans. When not directly assisting customers, he also conducts and participates in homebuyer seminars.

In his spare time you can find this Ferris State University graduate coaching the Michigan Jaguars, a local soccer club. Tim also enjoys woodworking in the winter and spending time on his boat during the summer.

Since opening their doors in 1949, Ross Mortgage has held a reputation for professionalism, integrity and quality service. A full-service lender that combines over 60 years of mortgage lending experience with state-of-the-art mortgage lending technology, Ross is one of the top independent lenders in the Midwest, serving valued customers throughout Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Florida.

Offering personalized home loans and mortgage related services to the individual needs of each borrower, the Ross team of professionals proudly serves each customer with honesty, integrity and a commitment to excellence.
