

Café Osage

Granola, pancakes, corned beef hash...don't let Café Osage's seemingly standard breakfast fare fool you. This is simple food, yes, but here straightforward names belie thoughtful touches: The granola's accompanying lemon-curd yogurt; the Greens, Eggs & Ham's got prosciutto; the biscuits and gravy has creamed chicken, mushrooms, and leeks. It's all to let the ingredients shine—and what ingredients they are! In season, produce comes from the café's garden across the street; herbs are grown on the roof. It doesn't get more local than that. 4605 OLIVE, 314-454-6868, BOWOODFARMS.COM.
