Translations And Interpreters

We offer high quality translations services to individuals and corporations, from all industry. We count with certified translators who have experience and are native Speakers of the language. We focus primary in Spanish, French and Italian translations. We translate all type of documents including birth certificates, instructions manuals, work presentations, and more. No work is small enough or big enough.

Interpreters- We provide you with interpreters in different languages, and American Sign Language. Whether you need to do a presentation to co workers or clients, or participate in a big conference, or in a business negotiation we have interpreters to help you.

Spanish Healthcare Providers

We will teach Spanish to physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, hospital technicians, physical therapists, and medical administrators with little or no Spanish-language experience. We can help you with the material designed for the specific topics or work with the material they give you at your workplace.

We will use techniques of pronunciation and repetition to help you understand and remember useful phrases and that way you will feel more confidence in interviewing, examining, and treating your Spanish-speaking patients and most importantly making a connection with them.

The first step is to gain skills and confidence you need to interact with your Spanish-speaking patients and their families! We are here to help you.

Spanish for Lawyers

The objective of this course is to help legal professionals to learn Spanish, teaching them terminology necessary for their specific field. Courses will be prepared to cover both oral and written communication skills (including grammar, idioms, stylistic variation and storytelling). The intention is that the students will gain a full understanding of the cultural and regional nuances of communicating with colleagues in different countries so they can have an idea of the legal aspects dealing with different countries. Additionally, the students will cultivate the necessary abilities to create legal documents in Spanish and converse with clients and colleagues in a professional setting.

Spanish for Construction managers

Are you in the construction industry? Do you want to communicate effectively with Spanish-speaking employees or co-workers on the construction site? At academy of Culture and Language we will teach you the necessary phrases and the pronunciation to be able to connect and communicate in your field

TOEFL PREP

The TOEFL prep course builds from the master level and helps students pass the TOEFL exam. This course includes:

- Reading, listening, speaking, and writing study sections
- Practical advice for taking the TOEFL exam
- Practice tests
- Advice for good study habits

English Accent Reduction

Once we assess the results of your diagnostic analysis according to your goals, objectives, and areas for improvement, you will be assigned a Spanish accent reduction trainer.

The goal of accent reduction training is for the non-native to improve their overall speaking clarity. Accent reduction training is to help you better understand your workplace and community; not to completely eliminate the accent.

Crash Course for Travelers

For most of us, traveling to a foreign country often involves culture shock—especially when you can't speak the native language. This can make connecting with others and adapting to their culture more difficult.

ACAL offers a crash course for travelers that includes a quick introduction to the language, everyday practices, and traditions of the foreign country. It can be helpful for first-time or veteran travelers to learn the proper pronunciation and meaning of essential phrases before booking their trip.

Our native-speaking instructors will teach you:

- Proper greetings
- How to introduce yourself
- How to order food
- Other common aspects of daily life

What are you waiting for? Prepare for your trip today with this useful, fast-paced course tailored specifically for you!
