Introducing the Modern REcube

Made by our local craftsmen, the REcube is made by remanufacturing durable Haworth steel frames into custom fabrics for renewed life.

Our REcube cubicles undergo an intensive remanufacturing process that involves stripping the workstations to their steel frames and replacing the panels, fabric, work surfaces, and more. You can also add custom features such as glass panels, paint colors, and fabrics.

Though they look and function like new, our REcube products cost 30% to 50% less. You can choose from our low wall cubicles, customized design cubicles, or power-packed executive cubicles.

Our Synergy Line Cubicles

Businesses needing new workstations might want to consider our Synergy line. These cubicles have a highly modern-looking appearance that is sure to enhance the atmosphere and look of any office.

What's more, we can customize the workstations work surface and panel heights, paint and trim colors, and storage options. Added customizations make it easy for you custom-design your cubicles down to the smallest of details.
