FOUNDERS GRACE WU AND DONNY GUADIANO

MENU CONSULTANT LEONARD CHAN

ABOUT

Pie Dog is a steak burger and sausage house with the menu conceptualized by Leonard Chan. Grace Wu and Donny Guadiano are the owners of this casual establishment located in Fullerton. The full-service concept offers 24 rotating craft beer taps for the beer loving aficionados of the community. Can't decide which one to try out first? Grab a beer flight, offering four pours of your choice to sample. The menu features hand-crafted sausages that are made in house, house ground steak burgers and a lengthy list of house made sauces for lots of dipping. With affordable prices and contemporary art lining the walls, this space is uber inviting for college demographics and those that appreciate a cold one in a casual dining setting.

"We are over the moon to be part of the Fullerton community and are really excited to open this perfect place for imperfect people." — Grace Wu

"I am a child of the '80s, it's feel good music. So is the food. But the main draw is the beer. This is the best food to go with the main attraction." — Donny Guadiano

BEER

Twenty-four rotating craft beer taps are the main attraction at this restaurant. For the most up to date list of beers, check out the app Tap Hunter. You'll find information on what beers Pie Dog currently has, ABV, regional info, type and a brief summary describing the flavor profile. Cheers!
