

Lovers

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seattleites Flaunt Their Fetishes at Cabaret Halloween Party

Lovers transforms SoDo warehouse into a den of dirty, sexy candy. The hottest Halloween event of the year benefits local non-profit DAWN.

SEATTLE—Sept. 25, 2019—Lovers announced its inaugural Fetish Fantasy Cabaret Halloween Party today, inviting Seattleites to get flirty, dirty, queer, and kinky. The October 26th event, in partnership with Valtesse Productions, takes place at First Pick Design (1915 1st Ave S) from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m and features a nonstop feast of eye-candy: shibari rope bondage, sultry burlesque by Carmen Caliente and the mighty Ms. Briq House, plus daring dance and aerial shows, VIP guest appearances, a DJ, and a pop-up Lovers boutique to keep the party vibe buzzing all night. Strap on your leather, slap on your latex, and visit Stranger Tickets to reserve your spot.

“We’ve created a Halloween experience for the Seattle community that asks attendees to celebrate sex-positivity in a sophisticated way,” said Jessica Ivey, VP of Marketing & E-Commerce at Lovers, who says this kind of party is long overdue. “We’re welcoming people of all races, genders, sexual identities, shapes and sizes to join us for a fun, titillating, fetish-themed night of live performances and art installations benefiting a deserving local non-profit.”

Lovers and Valtesse Productions will transport their guests into a dark, mysterious atmosphere where they’ll choose their own erotic adventures.

- VIP Guest Appearances. Meet adult film star and sex educator Jessica Drake at a kissing booth sponsored by Wicked Sensual Care.
- Kink-friendly costumes. Reveal your favorite fetish, whether it’s leather, latex, a mask, mesh, or flesh (but no nudity, please).
- Shopping. Pick up a fresh new plaything at the Lovers pop-up boutique.
- Music and Dancing. See and be seen on the dance floor with Seattle-based DJ Tollefson
- Signature Cocktails + Full Bar. Bottoms up with themed cocktails at the full cash bar. A portion of the night’s ticket sales benefit local non-profit DAWN and its mission to end domestic violence and create peaceful communities.

Tickets are on sale now, including:

- VIP: A limited quantity of $100 tickets provide guests early entry at 7:00 p.m. and VIP perks including a champagne toast, crowd-free shopping, swag from Lovers valued at $150, and the chance to mingle with burlesque artists Carmen Caliente and Briq House, and celebrity guest Jessica Drake.
- General Admission: For $50, guests receive entry at 8:30 p.m. and access to the main areas of the party, all performances, the bars, the dance floor, and the Lovers boutique.

All guests receive special RFID bracelets pre-loaded with funds to purchase drinks, merch, and kissing booth photos. The party is a cash-free experience. For more information about Lovers or the Fetish Fantasy Cabaret Halloween Party, visit www.loverspackage.com.

The Lovers Family of Stores is a sex-positive, judgment-free, fetish-friendly community dedicated to enhancing your sexual pleasure—whatever pleasure you pick. Mother-daughter duo Phylis Heppenstall and Kriss Butt founded Lovers in 1981 under the belief that everyone has a right to great sex, regardless of gender identification, race, sexual orientation, or socio-economic status. Our 43 locations now span across Washington, Oregon, Texas, Tennessee, and California under A Touch of Romance, Christal's, and Lovers. Each store offers high-quality toys, curated products, and education to help you consensually fulfil your desires. Maybe it's time you finally realized that fantasy—you know the one. Satisfy your curiosity at www.loverspackage.com or on Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter.

Media Contact:

Emmet Wright

Kiterocket for Lovers

206-706-0668

ewright@kiterocket.com

###