

Courtney Anderson

Montréal, QC ♦ LinkedIn

Eight years of experience in the newsroom and four years teaching in the classroom. Able to edit and write breaking news, features and online content with infographics. Skilled in social media including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. Trained in AP/CP Style, APA Style, Adobe Audition and Photoshop.

Relevant Experience

Freelance reporter, translator, and editor – Canada, France and Armenia

October 2019 – present

- Freelance editor for various journalistic (AP Style) and academic (APA Style) projects.
- Producer of All Rites, a podcast about European traditions in the 21st century. Received a microgrant for the project. Available on Spotify and published the magazine, Are We Europe.
- Contributed to various media outlets including Spread Stories Not the Virus and Our Languages.
- FR to EN translator for Cafébabel's Blue Border project.
- Collaborated with 20 journalists to produce multimedia stories in Yerevan, Armenia. Wrote feature stories after the 2018 revolution. Published by Cafébabel and Are We Europe.

English teacher – VIPKID online and Babylangues, France

July 2017 – present

- Teach oral and written English daily. Follow strict programs designed for second-language acquisition. TESOL Foundational & Advanced certified.

Reporter – The Local, Paris

January 2018 – July 2018

- Intern responsible for researching, writing and editing stories. Helped translate and post on social media. Trained to cultivate and maintain online readership.

Education reporter – Herald and News, Oregon

March – November 2016

- Education, health and agriculture reporter. Responsible for daily content, weekend and magazine features. Produced story infographics and used social media daily.

News editor and diversity reporter – Montana Kaimin, Montana

January 2014 – May 2015

- Diversity reporter for the Montana Kaimin from January 2014 to 2015. Promoted to news editor and directed a team of over 30 student journalists. Responsible for editing the paper daily.
- Copy editor and fact-checker for the Montana Journalism Review magazine in 2015.

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Journalism – University of Montana

August 2011 – May 2015

- Journalism major with international development and Latin American studies minors. Studied politics and Spanish in Michoacán, Mexico.

French B1-B2 Certificate – École Polytechnique, France

June 2020