For the final year of my degree I completed a dissertation which was titled: "How skateboarders act as agents of gentrification in Urban spaces; should communities perceive their subversion of urban environments and skateboarding's integration as constructive?". I also completed modules on modern terrorism and systematic racism within the criminal justice system of America as well as completing essays on Class Conflict in Contemporary Britain as well as Human Rights, for which I wrote about Surveillance in the Urban Environment, which shared common themes of social control and social exclusion with my dissertation.

Work Experience:

Absolutely Fabulous Cleaning Company (September 2014 – February 2015)

Responsibilities;
