Subject: (HTML VERSION): Larissa, you hold so much hope

Dear Larissa,

Tomorrow—a word that holds so much hope.

Have you had time to reflect on Christ's birth and the joy his light brings to the world? As we enter a new year—in just six days—we reflect on the last year.

When I look back on 2019, several moments stand out. Moments that have changed so many children's tomorrows. Moments that have been made by people like you.

One moment was in June, when we celebrated 25 years of building hope in Laos.

Deep in the heart of this country, people like you have given vulnerable children the chance to learn. Today, boys and girls attend educational camps that prepare them for school. They also have classroom supplies and lunch to eat—imagine finally being able to focus because you're no longer hungry!

When you give a gift today, you change someone's tomorrow.

Will you celebrate this Christmas by building hope for tomorrow? Give a year-end gift today.

Peace and light,
