Give a year end gift today!

Dear D Larissa,

This year has been long. Here are at home, it felt like just as COVID-19 slowed down, we faced more economic uncertainty. At the same time, we watched with horror as Russia invaded Ukraine, and a food crisis began to spread across the globe.

D Larissa, people like you gave—even when things were difficult. In the midst of your own challenges, you loved your neighbor.

Thousands of families—mostly women and children—have fled Ukraine to nearby countries and gifts like yours helped to welcome them.

Since February, Catholic Relief Services and our Caritas partners have provided food, hygiene, education and safe shelter in 10 countries across the region.

But the war is not over and refugees are making long-term decisions—like where to live and go to school—as they wait to hear from husbands and fathers on the front lines.

As 2022 draws to a close, we pray that we see resolutions to the challenges and conflicts of this year—in our own lives and in our neighbors' lives.

Will you give a year end gift? Your donation is a gift of love for a child, a parent, yourself.

Peace and light,
