

Hey Volunteers!

Are you interested in teaching music to kids? Volunteer your time with Notes for Notes. We are a SF nonprofit that gives youth FREE access to music instruments, instruction, and recording studios.

Quick Details:

- Who: Work with youth ages 5-18
- What: Volunteer 1-2 hours weekly
- Where: Find us at 380 Fulton St., San Francisco, CA 94102
- When: Come in (2:00-8:00) PM Monday-Friday
- Why: Gain experience with nonprofits and teaching.

How To Get Started

Teach: Show students how to play guitar, bass, drums, piano/keys/synth, sing, DJ, and more. Musicians of all skill levels are welcome.

Educate: Lead a workshop. Topics can vary: from how to build a career in music to how to create an instrument.

Jam: Join us in the studio and jam with our musicians. Many need help forming bands.

Inspire: Become a young person's music hero. Inspire them to take up music for life.

Take a break from studying and contact us today to learn more!

T.J. Guardino

Program Director, San Francisco

tguardino@notesfornotes.org

(415) 579-1497

David lee

Regional Director, San Francisco

david@notesfornotes.org

(415) 967-3642

About Notes for Notes®:

Notes for Notes® (N4N) is a nonprofit organization that builds, equips and runs after school recording studios, providing youth with opportunities to explore, create and record music for free. Our Studios are located inside Boys & Girls Clubs and other after school facilities and are packed with guitars, drums, keys/synths, DJ turntables, and computer workstations with music creation software and full recording capabilities. Check us out at notesfornotes.org.

