

Representing PNR RailWorks

PNR RailWorks' Gord Strilchuk, vice president of marketing and business development, presides at the 84th annual dinner of the Toronto Railway Club. Gord just completed the first year of a two-year term as the club's president. He is the first Signals & Communications person to serve as president of the rail industry group, which has eight major networking events annually for its 400-plus members and their guests.
