

A long time ago, you learned to separate magic from real life. You learned that fairytales only exist in the pages of books or on the silver screen... But what if you could wake up every morning and live your life in a wondrous place, full of the magic and joy you always dreamed of for your family? This home is your chance.

5333 Mountain Meadow Lane is much more than just a house: it's a place intentionally designed to create fairytale memories in. High up in the hills of La Canada, you'll be surrounded by picturesque nature and friendly neighbors. You'll know their names and, most importantly, their smiles.

Step into the entry foyer and become enamored with the soaring ceilings and radiant natural light. In the living room with fireplace, a huge window frames the front yard. The living room gracefully opens to the dining room with gorgeous mountain views.

Enjoy the open concept kitchen and family room. As you cook, you'll be surrounded by your family and friends, who can relax on barstools at the kitchen counter or lounge in the spacious family room (also with fireplace), happily munching on appetizers.

Flow through any one of the four sets of French doors to the serene backyard. You'll feel your fairytale coming to life when you see your loved ones joyfully splashing in the pool, luxuriating in the raised spa, and eating delicious barbeque on any one of the patios. You'll be stunned by the breathtaking views.

You'll have guests clamoring to stay with you, especially when they see the downstairs bedroom en suite. It offers exceptional privacy to your visitors and stair-free access to the family room and kitchen.

When you head upstairs, your whole family will enjoy the spacious bedrooms. A Jack and Jill bedroom and another en suite give your family all the comfort they could ask for, as well as copious closet space.

Retire to your gorgeous master bedroom. It's spacious with an elegantly appointed master bathroom. The single best thing about this room? The dramatic views from your large windows and your wide, deep balcony.

The colors of sunrise and sunset will put on an enchanting daily show for you. Even without getting out of bed, you'll see a gorgeous display of nature's bounty every morning and the twinkling of city lights every evening. Snap a photo of the sunrise while still in bed and share the glorious view with your friends and family. Being greeted daily by such beauty, is it any wonder the most recent owner described the house as "pure magic" for her and her family?

The balcony is the perfect place to wind down at the end of the day. The space is so perfectly peaceful that your pets will love to take long naps in the sunshine or feel the cool California breeze at night from this balcony (and nobody knows the good life like our cats and dogs). On a clear day, you'll see all the way to Catalina Island and on a cloudy day, the mountaintops will turn into magical kingdoms atop the clouds.

This home will afford you and your family unbelievable experiences that you will treasure in your heart forever. It was thoughtfully designed by the original builder for his own family, so no detail was left unperfected.

Even though the huge pool seems like it would be visible a hundred miles away, the property is designed so your neighbors will not be able to see into your backyard.

In this magical home, your life can truly be the stuff of dreams. Schedule a tour today and see for yourself how close you are to “happily ever after”.
