FICTION/CREATIVE NONFICTION/POETRY OR PLAYWRITING

You want to tell stories. But you can't seem to find the time. Well now is the time.

Here's how the story goes:

Beginning

You choose to write. Every day. You apply to Regis' Mile High MFA, a low-residency program that lets you stay at your job and close to your family, but pushes you to make time for writing.

Middle

You work with a professional writer. You turn out pages like never before. You read great books. Between semesters, you attend residencies in Denver, honing your craft, making friends and learning to sell your work.

End

You leave the program with a writing practice, sharpened skills, a network of seasoned and aspiring writers, a publishable manuscript and an action plan for putting writing into practice in the world.

Your story starts here.
