1. Her Campus Media:

To whom it may concern at Her Campus Media,

I am a big fan of your platform and media portfolio. I especially love that you cater towards college women by empowering and advising them professionally.

I am reaching out to you on behalf of The Modern Debutante, a Baton Rouge small business, owned by women. The owners, Diana and Danielle, teamed up in 2018 to bring flower and hedge wall services to the Louisiana area. The service has spread rapidly, but a small business can always use more promotion: nationally and locally. With that being said, The Modern Debutante and its owners would be a great candidate to include in one of your advertising spreads. We are interested in your opinion of which specific outlet would be best catered toward for the company.

I have attached my information and The Modern Debutante's Instagram page. If this is something you would be interested in, please don't hesitate to reach out. We are looking forward to working with you and will be in touch soon!

Thank you,

2. Messy Mom Magic Podcast

Hi Stef and Chrissy,

I am big fan of your podcast and how you focus on the messy reality of being a mom. I especially love Episode 34: Modern Mommy Madness because of how hard topics like mental health were openly and honestly discussed.

I am reaching out on behalf of The Modern Debutante, a local business specializing in unique wall services. The owners of TMD, Diana and Danielle, are two hardworking entrepreneurs that teamed up in 2018 and strive to bring a different style of party decorations to the Baton Rouge area. I feel The Modern Debutante would be a great candidate for a 30-second advertisement on your podcast briefly discussing the services that they provide.

I have attached a voice memo with a sample of how the advertisement would sound. If this is something you would be interested in, please don't hesitate to reach out and we can get straight to pricing. We are looking forward to working with you and will be in touch!
