

We're in love—and so much more. From the amazing hairdressers at Contreras Academy in France, these variations on blonde are everything we want in a beauty affair...

Sealed With A Kiss

Lash-kissing fringe and long layers are a style dream come true. Blow-dry locks with a paddle brush to keep the finish smooth, then gloss over the top with a shine serum.

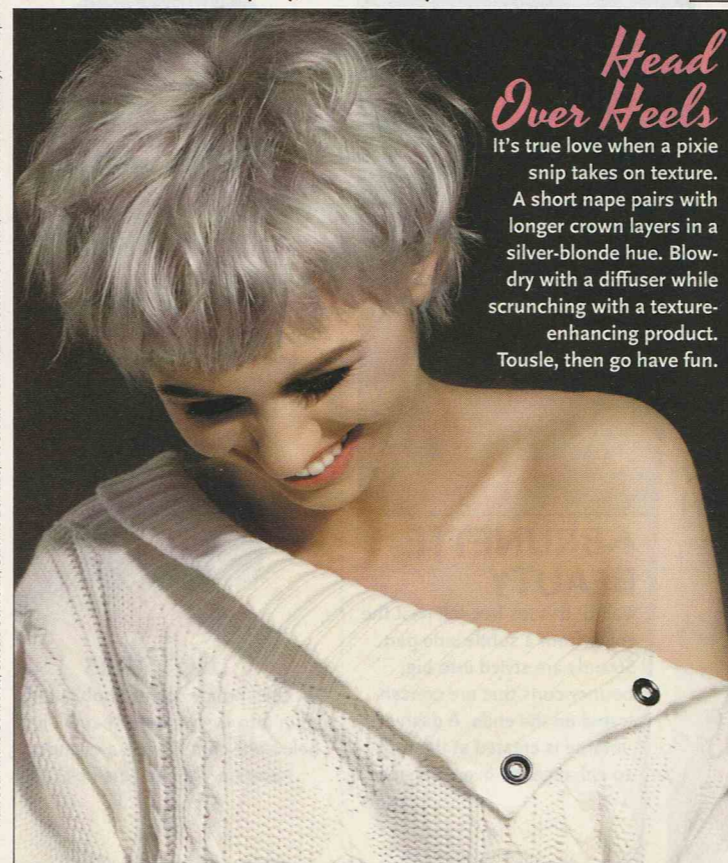

It Takes Two

White-hot and oh-so chic, this platinum bob is sheer perfection. Tresses are blow-dried with a round brush, curving ends under and rounding out the full bang. Tuck edges behind each and top with a hat—or not.

Crushing Hard

If stare-worthy hair is what you're after, here's your style obsession (above). Slick strands upward and twist into a knot, with the ends falling forward. Tease and ruffle hair into a pretty, textured frenzy.

Head Over Heels

It's true love when a pixie snip takes on texture. A short nape pairs with longer crown layers in a silver-blonde hue. Blow-dry with a diffuser while scrunching with a texture-enhancing product. Touse, then go have fun.

Love At First Sight

Romance is in the hair, and that means curls (above). Prime locks with a volumizing mousse, then blow-dry with a round brush for volume. Working from a sideswept part, use a jumbo curling iron to create fat spirals.
