THE SEABIRD

Splendid seaside estate with bold personality

With smart, playful décor contrasting against a classic nautical theme, The Seabird Resort is a full-fledged escape by the sea. It boasts ample room for hosting extravagant weddings bringing together hundreds of people.

THE SEABIRD LOBBY

GRAND COASTAL BALLROOM

GRAND COASTAL BALLROOM

Make sweeping coastal views the dramatic centerpiece of your celebration. This expansive venue overlooks a wide-open terrace with stunning views of the beach, the ocean, and the historic pier. There's plenty of space for guests to mingle, dance, and celebrate amid enchanting surroundings.

COASTAL TERRACE

Delight your guests with outdoor festivities featuring the grandeur of the Pacific Ocean as a backdrop. Up to 250 guests can gather for a reception on this 3,050-square-foot, open-air terrace. Infuse your event with the endless California sunshine and spectacular views of the palm-studded coast.

BREAKWATER

Adjacent to the hotel's own permanent collection of artwork curated by the Oceanside Museum of Art, this sophisticated 2,108-square-foot venue can accommodate a reception of up to 140 guests. Its location near a side hotel entrance gives this venue an air of privacy and exclusivity.

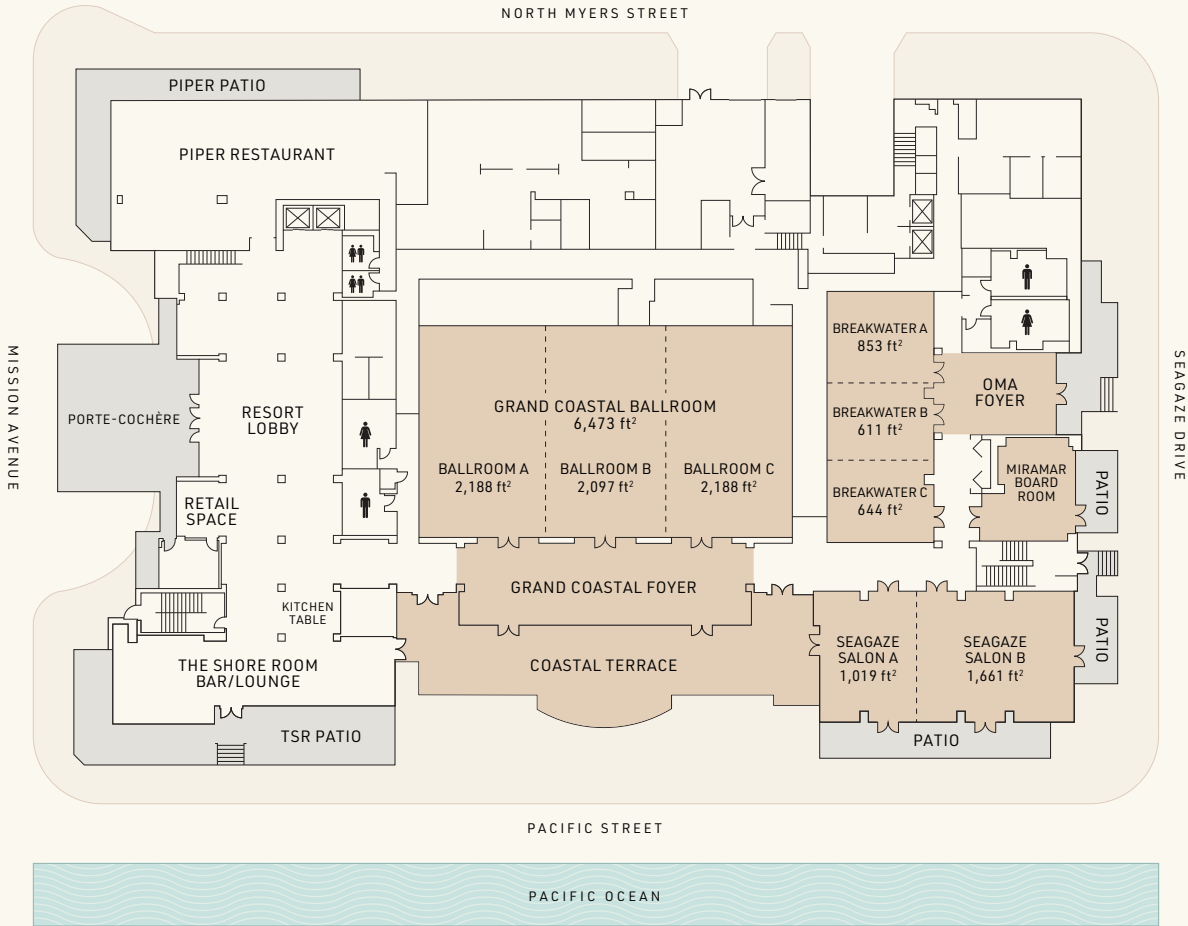

SEAGAZE SALON

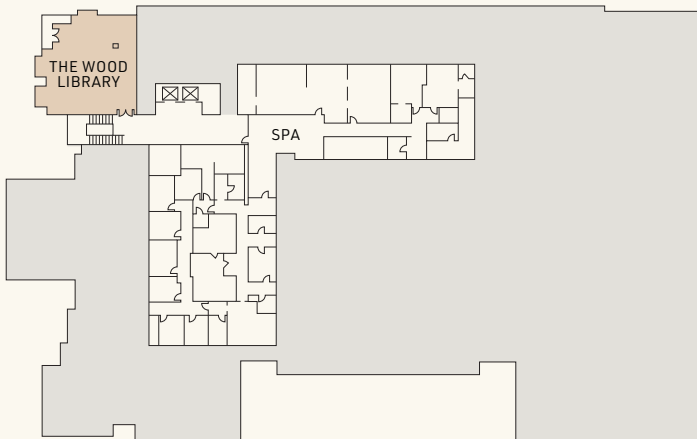

Share your joy with up to 180 guests in this 2,680-square-foot venue, which opens to two breezy patios with unobstructed views of the water. Boasting impressive design and graceful architectural elements, it offers flexible configurations to help you achieve your wedding's distinctive concept.

OUR DESTINATION

Oceanside: A dream come true for surfers, sunseekers, and social butterflies

Southern California is filled with alluring beach towns, but none stands out quite like Oceanside beach. A surfer's haven filled with historic bungalows and blessed with those iconic towering palm trees, this eclectic seaside town showcases the true authenticity of the region's cultural, artistic, and culinary movements.

WHERE WE'RE LOCATED

The Seabird and Mission Pacific are located in the heart of the Oceanside Cultural District, a walkable commercial area brimming with local eateries, popular breweries, art galleries, and even two historic theaters. Located less than two miles from the hotels is Oceanside Harbor Village, a quaint waterfront row of shops and dining outlets. From under-the-radar beaches to a historic mission founded in 1798, Oceanside is full of delightful surprises for your guests to uncover.

*Introducing a fresh,
carefree take on luxury*

Though they boast distinctive ambiances, both The Seabird and Mission Pacific embody the ease and blissfulness of coastal living in Southern California.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

- More than 40,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor event spaces between both properties
- Direct access to Oceanside Beach
- Artwork curated and sourced by Oceanside Museum of Art
- Central location overlooking historic pier and within walking distance of many shops, restaurants, and businesses
- Train access to San Diego and Los Angeles
- Beach butler service and full complement of water sports
- Nearly 500 valet parking spaces
- Pet-friendly program
