

CAMP JUST AN HOUR OFF THE SOCIAL COAST

Located just an hour off the Southern California coast, Catalina Island is home to a nature lover's best-kept secret: Hermit Gulch Campground.

Secluded enough for social distancing, but conveniently close to Avalon's to-go dining spots, this wide-open space is perfect for reigniting your wanderlust after a long time indoors.

LEARN MORE

Hermit Gulch Campground features tent sites, and also brand new tent cabins.

Sip your morning coffee to the sound of birdsong in Avalon Canyon, then explore the Hermit Gulch Trail to spot endemic plant and animal species. Take a stroll to the beach, just one mile away, for stunning views of the harbor and those irresistible salty breezes.

Relax, recharge, and reconnect with the great outdoors!

Our Campground Has:

- ✓ Sinks and hand sanitizing stations
- ✓ Coin-operated hot showers
- ✓ Lighted restrooms with flush toilets
  - ✓ Potable water
  - ✓ Vending machines
- ✓ Picnic tables and charcoal BBQs

RESERVE NOW

Or Call Visitor Services at 310.510.4205

MORE CATALINA CAMPING

Did you know that Catalina Island is home to five campgrounds? Learn more about camping in Two Harbors on Catalina's west end, and the island's three primitive campgrounds: Little Harbor, Parsons Landing and Black Jack.

LEARN MORE

SPECIAL OFFERS

Sign up to receive special offers from the Catalina Island Company.