SPRING TRAINING Tim Tebow gets 1st hit for Mets, singles vs Marlins

Former UF football star finally ends hitless streak

By BILL WHITEHEAD Associated Press

PORT ST. LUCIE — Tim Tebow has gotten his first hit for the New York Mets. The former NFL quarterback singled

Tebow was hitless in his first eight at-bats in spring training before his opposite-field single on a 2-2 pitch leading off the bottom of the fifth inning. He was then erased on a double-play grounder.

WINTER SPORTS

Playing left field, the former Heisman Trophy winner made a head-first diving catch in the second inning to rob Justin Bour of a hit.

Tebow batted eighth, and his appearance in the lineup was a surprise. On Friday, manager Terry Collins said there were no plans to bring back the 29-yearold Tebow after his second start.

But the Mets needed players because of the World Baseball Classic and multiple split-squad games and decided to have Tebow join them from their minor league camp.

New York Mets'Tim Tebow stretches out before batting practice at the team's complex in Port St. Lucie back in Sept.

FORT WHITE – She can bench over 200 pounds, is a reigning weightlifting state champion, and she's only a sophomore. With mental and physical strength and the title to match, Kacey Carter is the Lake City Reporter's Fort White Girls Weightlifting Player of the Year.

Carter made history this past weightlifting season, earning Fort White's first ever girls weightlifting state title and the school's first state title in girls sports. However, while lifting at the state meet in Ocala last month, she wasn't sure if she would walk away with the title.

"I knew I had a chance, but when I won it I was pretty surprised because I wasn't doing as well as I'd hoped with bench," Carter

"I really didn't expect it," Carter said. "I didn't even think I would be that strong."

Fort White girls weightlifting coach Dan Marsee said he knew from the improved, jumping from a 190 to a 215 bench press and from a 180 to a 205 clean-and-jerk.

Her increase in strength is attributed to the hours of work she puts into her training, during both the regular and off seasons.

NASCAR Busch-Logano brawl brings buzz to the Cup

By MIKE CRANSTON Associated Press

LAS VEGAS — The introduction of stage racing has so far provided the intended effect of spicing up the NASCAR Cup Series.

But nothing beats a good old-fashioned brawl to get everyone buzzing. Martin Truex Jr. wasn't immune. After taking advantage of Brad Keselowski's mechanical issues to sweep all three segments and take Sunday's race at Las Vegas Motor Speedway, Truex came into the media center and was asked about the Kyle Busch-Joey Logano pit-road brawl. "Who won?" Truex asked reporters.

Told that Busch ended up with a bloody forehead, Truex wanted details. "Haymaker swings?"

COLLEGE BASKETBALL Florida says its popular pick to get upset in NCAA tourney

By MARK LONG

Associated Press

GAINESVILLE — Although Florida is a top-four seed playing two hours from home, the Gators feel like an underdog heading into the NCAA Tournament.

Coach Mike White even acknowledged Monday that his team is a popular pick to get upset in the opening round of March Madness.

"Everybody's saying it," White said.

There might be reason to believe it.

Florida (24-8), which fell three spots to No. 20 in the final Associated Press college basketball poll of the season, has lost three of its last four games and hasn't figured out how to play without center John Egbunu. Senior Kasey Hill looks lost at times and has more turnovers (19) than assists (13) in the six games since Egbunu's season-ending knee injury. Fellow guard Canyon Barry has scored seven or fewer points in four of those games, including two scoreless outings. Devin Robinson, who reached double digits in 12 of Florida's first 14 games this season, has become wildly inconsistent on that end of the floor.

And Justin Leon and Kevarrius Hayes, guys expected to fill Egbunu's role inside, have been barely noticeable of late.

So the fourth-seeded Gators might just be vulnerable when they step on the floor against 13th-seeded Eastern Tennessee State (27-7) in Orlando on Thursday.

"I hope It helps our guys," White said. "It doesn't bother me at all. I don't care. If I were in the same position ... I might pick the same thing. They're really good and 13s have upset 4s. I've been a part of one. SPORTS LAKE CITY REPORTER

Fort White standout offensive lineman Doug Johnson (77) received another offer last week. This one comes from Mississippi State. Johnson, a high-recruit junior, now has seven total offers: UF, UGA, Ole Miss, Utah, UofL, UTC and MSU. The Indian star hopes to pick up more during his senior season this fall.

"Our guys heard it. They saw it. I don't know how much they'll read this week. I hope none. I hope they all crack their phones and throw them in the garbage. Hopefully it's a tiny, tiny bit more motivation. I don't know how much more we need. We need a W in the worst way."

It's also quite possible that Florida's recent skid has been overblown.

The Gators lost at Kentucky, the toughest place at play in the Southeastern Conference, and twice to Vanderbilt in Nashville. They led in all three games and also beat

So it's not difficult for Florida to spin its slump. There are plenty of numbers that help, too. The Gators are 10th in Ratings Percentage Index, seventh in strength of schedule and ninth in the latest Pomeroy College Basketball Ratings. Florida also is one of five in the 68-team field that didn't lose to a non-tournament opponent during the season, joining Villanova, Arizona, Louisville and UCLA.

Nonetheless, the Gators are looking at this week as a chance to reboot.

"It's a new start for us," leading scorer KeVaughn Allen said. "The three

"It was nothing intentional," Logano said. "But obviously he thinks that.'

As Truex headed toward victory circle, video showed Busch walking down pit road, then turning right and throwing a right hook at Logano's face. Logano's crew members brought Busch to the ground as NASCAR officials yelled for them to stop.

losses that we had, just got to turn it into a motivation for us.'

Players should get extra motivation from being back in Orlando and playing in front of what's expected to be a pro-Florida crowd. Two of the team's best non-conference wins came in the Amway Center, when the Gators beat Seton Hall and Miami in the Advocare Invitational in late November. They almost upset Gonzaga, too.

The Gators might not be the same now without Egbunu, but White doesn't think they're far off despite those three losses that have some questioning the team's chances.

margin for error has decreased, so we've just got to be ultra sound. Our communication has got to be better. Our discipline has got to be better. ... Just simple things.'

But enough that it dampened Florida's celebration as players and coaches watched the selection show Sunday.

"If we had won five of the last six, I'd feel a little better. It kind of takes away some of the excitement," White said. "No one likes losing, so the mood right now is, 'We've lost two in a row.' It's not, 'Yay, we're going to the tournament.'

"There wasn't much talking, just a lot of swinging," Logano said. "I was racing hard there at end."

That gave Toyota a win after Ford victories in the season's first two races.

"I've been on the other side of those things plenty of times, so it definitely feels good to take advantage of somebody else's issue for once," Truex said.
