Lincoln hosts Columbia in 7A quarterfinals.

It was a short and sweet homecoming for the well-traveled Tigers.

Columbia returned home last week to defend its near decade-long winning streak versus rival Suwannee. After tallying their fifth straight victory, the Tigers now head back on the interstate to face Lincoln in the opening round of the state playoffs.

Bound for enemy territory, yet the Tigers like their chances against the Trojans.

"Road games are when we really step up to the plate," wide receiver Taurean Hill said. "Those games, to us, are more like be the people that come Lincoln (5-3) aims for revenge Friday night. The Trojans are still bitter after being embarrassed by the visiting Tigers at home during last year's playoffs.

Columbia welcomes the challenge, prepared for the highly-anticipated quarter-

"Right now is the time," Columbia head coach Brian Allen said. "It's November. It's time to get hot. It's time to be who you are as a football team."

The Tigers enter the heavyweight bout on an offensive surge averaging 37 points a game over the last five outings. Columbia registered 427 yards in last week's win.

FORT WHITE — The Indians are hoping to experience some déjà vu in tonight's regional semifinal game against Hamilton County.

When Fort White faced the Trojans earlier this season, they took the victory easily. The blowout 48-0 win over the Class 1A rival set the Indians up with their second win of the season. Tonight, Fort White is hoping to deliver the same fate.

"We're definitely hoping to come out with a victory," Fort White head coach Demetric Jackson said. "We're hoping to play well in all phases of the game: offense, defense and special teams."

The Indians (8-2, 4-0) are riding a six-game winning streak going into the postseason, and they don't job. Defense just needs to keep up the good work that we've been putting in all season." The Tigers' defensive unit continues to be a force this season, especially against the run. Columbia, however, could be in for its toughest obstacle yet tonight.

Lincoln's offense is led, too, by a three-year starter quarterback Chris Brimm, who is accompanied by a talented supporting cast, including seniors wide receivers Malik Garye and speedster Trevor Solomon-Wilson.

Columbia is more than confident its squad can slow down the District 1 champions.

"I feel good about where we are defensively," coach Allen said. "We're probably playing as good up front as we have all year long. One of [Lincoln's] big things is play-action. It's going to be critical for us to get coverage sacks as well as pressure turnovers...

All the technique, all the coaching, all the things we've done over the course of the year must come to the light now in the postseason.' Assembled for battle, Columbia's troops are all set to dig in the trenches out west.

The streaky Tigers have caught fire as of late, and try to keep their flame lit against some resistance tonight at Gene Cox Stadium.

"I'm ready," Hill said. "And not just me, everybody around me is ready. We're hype.'

However, while there are advantages to playing a team you've crushed in the past, there are some setbacks that can come up as well, including overconfidence.
