PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am Nurul Diah Ramadani Putri, a fourth-year English Program student, I am a hard worker, humble, and happy person. I am interested in media literacy, journalism, and challenges. Meeting and working with new people is not a problem for me. My goals are to become a journalist and also a book writer.

EDUCATION

- ✓ English Program Student, Department of Languages, Art, and Culture Management, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Yogyakarta: Fourth Year.
2016 – Present.

WORK/INTERNSHIP/ORGANIZATIONS EXPERIENCE

- ✓ I had an opportunity to work part-time as a technical editor at Badan Penerbit and Publikasi (BPP) Universitas Gadjah Mada. There is a lot of knowledge that I got from working here especially how to edit journals to be published. Not only that, I also learned how to build a more mature personality to enter the occupation world. It was nice to be able to work according to my passion, which is writing.
- ✓ Internship at Metro Tv company at Metro Malam program, but sometimes I also help in Top News program and World News program. It is an honour for me to be able to join this company and learn many things about the broadcasting field. Here, I learn how to work quickly so I can prepare the news before the news is broadcast on television. I also learn about working with teams or independently, also coordinating with the team so that the news runs smoothly.
- ✓ For more than six months I worked as a Content Writer freelancer at IM Powerhouse company. Here I work with a remote working system at the same time when I was an intern on Metro Tv. During that time, I learned more about how to manage my time better so that they could run well.

I am an active person in organization and several times attend to the committee on campus. Here are some of my experiences:

1. 2018 – Present Pelatihan Pemimpin Bangsa (PPB) #12 UGM as a Secretariat Staff.
2. 2018 – Present LIGA SENI UGM as a Secretariat Staff.
3. 2017 – Present COPA KMDBSMB as a Secretary.
4. 2017 – Present PPSMB PERMADANI 2017 as a Co-Fasilitator.
5. 2017 – Present POVVAF 2017 Sekolah Vokasi Universitas Gadjah Mada as a Secretariat Staff.
6. and more.

SKILLS

- ✓ University GPA : 3.57
- ✓ Language Skills :
 - English : Advanced, with TEVocS (Test of English for Vocational Student), Score 80 (November, 14th 2018). It converted to 547 on TOEFL test.
 - Indonesian : Native
- ✓ Writing skills : I am quite confident in my writing skills since I worked at Badan Penerbit and Publikasi UGM as a technical editor, also I have written quite a lot of essays. And then, I worked as a content writer freelancer at IM Powerhouse for more than six months.
- ✓ Photography : I am quite good at taking photos, one of my hobbies is taking a photo at any moment.
- ✓ Interpreting : I have learned about basic interpreting and also learned to interpret from source language to target language and also about how to interpret well.
- ✓ Digital marketing : I studied digital marketing for one semester in college because digital marketing is a subject that I must take. For one semester I learned how to start a business from scratch and manage it well. Starting from preparing what content will be presented also calculates the profit and loss of the business.
- ✓ Editing and translating articles : After getting the opportunity to work as a technical editor at BPP UGM, I was often asked by a friend to edit their articles or essays. This makes me even more enthusiastic about continuing to practice and develop my passion for writing. Not only that, sometimes also some of friends from social media, such as Twitter, use my services to type or edit their articles. I got paid by them (I do not specify a price benchmark).
- ✓ Content writing : During one semester I learned about content writing, this made me understand more about what the market is most interested in and always present fresh and not boring content. I find myself who has a passion in this field and being a content writer is fun for me.
