HERE ARE SOME OF THEIR REAL EXPERIENCES.

BEN

Dedication. Commitment to what to do, to members. I remember once I felt better because of my condition. One of the members of my team told me, "I'm going to stand with you, we're going to go through this together and get this resolved.

CAROL

I talked with the dietitian to help me decide which foods I can eat, which foods affect me more than others. And it's just been a very helpful tool for me to use, to be able to work with my digestive issues.

LIZETTE

You should really try it because I feel so much better with my digestive health. My symptoms I've been having with my heartburn... it's gotten to the point where I can finally sleep at night. And I wasn't able to do that before, because I'd be woken up periodically because the heartburn was getting so bad.
