

GET IT ON TIME

Hello Kathryn,

My name is John and I have Parkinson's. I've been volunteering with Parkinson's UK, encouraging elected representatives to take action on our Get It On Time campaign.

It's unacceptable that in the 21st century nearly two-thirds of people with Parkinson's going into hospital and not being given their medication on time – Can you email your elected representative to ask them to action?

Here's me meeting Kevin Brennan MP at party conference

When I went to a party conference last year, MPs were really positive about the work we've been doing. I know that if people affected by Parkinson's – those living with it, their families, carers and friends – contacted them, we really can make a huge difference on this issue.

You can make a difference by contacting your local elected representative today.
They can really help us hold the NHS accountable.

Take action

Thank you,

John
