Swarovski Presents Magnolia Cup at Qatar Goodwood Festival

09 AUG 2018 (12) 12 Comments

The charitable all-female horse race raised funds for Cancer Research UK while promoting women's empowerment in sport.

The Magnolia Cup presented by Swarovski saw eleven amateur female riders compete at the prestigious Goodwood racecourse in aid of charity. Businesswoman Katie Forrest steered Hurricane Harry to an exciting and emotional win, and was awarded a crystal trophy by Nadja Swarovski.

This year marks the second time Swarovski has supported the Magnolia Cup, as part of its commitment to championing women in sport and furthering female empowerment. Each of the inspirational riders tested themselves to the limit while training for, and participating in, this challenging event.

Nadja Swarovski, Member of the Swarovski Executive Board, commented: "We are delighted to partner again this year with Goodwood to support the strong women taking part in the race at the Magnolia Cup. It is an inspiration moment in the sporting calendar, empowering amazing amateur riders to race at the highest level and raising vital funds to fight cancer."

The other inspirational riders included: cancer researcher Dr Amanda Cross, trainee doctor and cancer survivor Dr Camilla Hickish, milliner Emily Baxendale, British model Rosie Tapner, gallery manager Anna Rowlinson, businesswomen Shadi Halliwell, and media professionals Lady Alice Manners, Victoria Gray, Sarah Cook and Camilla Swift.

Swarovski welcomed guests on the day, including presenters Olivia Wayne, Charlie Webster, Ashley James and AJ Odudu, model Sabrina Percy, Olympic gold medalist Amy Williams, independent fine jewelry specialist Joanna Hardy and wellness author and blogger Faya Nilsson, all looking resplendent in Atelier Swarovski jewelry and eyewear.
