

Mars in Astrology

Mars transits 6-7 wks per sign. "The Red Planet" has a 687-day solar orbit through the zodiac.

The Basics

Mars is a desert planet with an unmistakable reddish hue. Visible to the naked eye at night, Mars has intrigued various civilizations for eons and functions as a most vital cog in the zodiacal wheel. Depending on Mars' placement upon birth, one may possess outer-worldly strength, life force, and courage. In fact, Mars is the planet of vitality and rules the 1st House, which represents the self, first impressions, and appearance. The governor of all masculine components during incarnation. Properly integrated, the frequency of Mars will assist you in keeping a razor-sharp focus and going the distance with any venture. Mars the traditional ruler of Aries and the co-ruler of Scorpio is a fire element and contains staunch cardinal qualities.

Meditation

- Tuning Pitch Hz
 - 433.67
- Audible Frequency
 - 144.72
- Audible Tone

- D
 - Octave Number
 - 33
 - Color
 - Red and Orange
 - Body Part
 - The Head
 - Sephirot
 - Gevurah
-

Characteristics and History

Mars may be 1.9x smaller than Earth but the “God of War” packs a fiery wallop and untamed spirit

Mars was visible to our ancient ancestors and thus has been highly venerated through-out every inch of this plane. From cave dwelling tribes to highly advanced post-flood civilizations Mars occupied a spot in almost every pantheon. When exploring the traditional characteristics associated with the planet it's no surprise to see why. Ares the Greek God of War showcased many unique attributes depending on which province one was in. In Sparta, Ares was the penultimate soldier, in Athens, Ares represented the uncontrolled, untamed brutal aspect of war and violence. Mars has been correlated with deities from all over the world, some include Iskar-Adad from Sumeria, Mars of the Roman pantheon and Bhoomi Putra of Hindi Mythology. Mars has held such a distinction due to its prominent placement in the night's sky at a magical part of the year, the Spring Equinox. Also, March was the traditional start of war campaigns. Mars is exalted in Capricorn, Mars' detriment is in Taurus and Libra and it's fall in Cancer. Mars is associated with iron, steel, coffee, tobacco, hemp, and whiskey. When properly tuned to Mars' frequency one can exude great leadership qualities and endurance. When out of tune Mars can be highly disruptive and is linked with inflammatory illness.

Things to Ponder

How do you plan to harness the fiery Mars aspects and vibrations in your own chart?

Who in your inner circle exemplifies the best and worst traits of Mars energy? And how can you help them achieve harmony?

How can contemplating the positive aspects of Mars energy assist you in achieving your wildest dreams?

Want to show the world you love Mars?

Love your sign and want to fill your home with representations of your astrological self? We've built a beautiful poster that incorporates all the information you just read through and more, check it out!