EDITOR'S NOTE

Created using a centuries-old Ottoman technique, the Pharaoh Cuff exemplifies Begum Khan's commitment to artisan craftsmanship. The gold vermeil cuff is hand-engraved by a master goldsmith to achieve a fabric-like finish and embellished with a scarab beetle encrusted in lapis gems. Wear from day to night for round-the-clock glamour.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Inspired by infamous socialite Wallis Simpson, this stunning necklace combines precious metals with an Art Deco influence. Handcrafted at Begum Khan's Istanbul atelier, the chain design features two Nile crocodiles wrought from 24kt gold-plated brass and finished with tiny gemstone eyes. A magnificent evil eye pendant, encrusted in deep blue and clear crystals, hangs suspended from the centre. Frame it with a plunging neckline for a dramatic evening look.
