
Jacob Sutherland

1007 Dawes ave. Wheaton, IL 60189

(331) 645-7014 | jacobcmsutherland@gmail.com

jasuther.journoportfolio.com | @jacobsuther | linkedin.com/in/jacobsutherlandofficial

EXPERIENCE

CATALYST, New York City, NY - Global Affairs Intern (remote)

June 2020 - PRESENT

- Conducted research, writing, and editing for international issues including police brutality in Australia, the Srebrenica Massacre anniversary, an Ebola outbreak in the Congo, and the Khabarovsk protests.

The UCSD Guardian, La Jolla, CA - News Editor, Columnist, Writer

November 2017 - June 2020

- Oversaw writing, editing, and production within the News section with a print circulation of 10,000 weekly readers. Covered relevant issues including the COVID-19 pandemic, Black Lives Matter, an alleged sexual harassment coverup, and bilingual Census resources.
- Created “PC Princess,” a column which highlighted social justice issues including electoral politics, LGBTQ+ rights, and the adult entertainment industry.

Truth Against the Machine, New York City, NY - Reporter (remote)

August 2017 - November 2017

- Pitched, wrote, and edited news articles in relation to local politics including LGBTQ+ literature, acts of racism, and ongoing labor disputes.

EDUCATION

University of California, San Diego - B.A. Political Science - American Politics

September 2017 - June 2020

Coursework including domestic and Latin American politics, racial and gender identities, immigration, and electoral data. Researched third gender identity in Mexico, news media biases, and the expansion of diversity, equity, and inclusion in a university environment.

SKILLS & ACTIVITIES

Skills: Research, writing, policy analysis, text editing, social media, copyediting, leadership, community engagement, English (native), Spanish (proficient)

Activities: Member of NLGJA, Pi Sigma Alpha at UCSD, and The UCSD Guardian.

AWARDS

Citizen Cord, Thurgood Marshall College - June 2020

Excellence in Undergraduate Research, Dimensions of Culture Program - June 2018