

Press Release / Event Intro

The VOCA PEOPLE have taken Australia by surprise in May 2020 – Full of energy and bursting with laughter, this international a-cappella musical comedy drives its original and thrilling theatrical harmonies to charm Aussie audience!

Dressing in whole body milky-white with ruby-red lips, Voca People present themselves as a group of friendly aliens whose galactic adventure lands them on the planet earth. Without any instruments and sound effects, Voca People combine the flawless a-cappella and modern beat-box simulations to recreate the most appealing music. This May, this group of aliens with a worldwide audience of over 3 million, will be leading the audience through a musical odyssey, featuring more than 80 a-cappella and beat-box versions of all-time favourite hits including music by Madonna, Michael Jackson and even Mozart!

As visually stunning and hilarious as it is vocally dazzling, these 8 talented alien singers are also comedians who engage the audience to participate in a way that delights and interacts with the crowd. Every show of Voca People is a unique and energetic musical that provides you with lots of excitement: From the history of music, to the songs of silver screen, to the music of love and more.
