

Sprouting a Healthier Future...

Metro Development Group Pioneers the First Residential Farm Amenity in Tampa

Discover agriculture urbanism where the Farm is at the heart of a thriving, vibrant community. This summer, Angeline will begin construction of a 2.5-acre community farm with a variety of vegetables and fruit trees. Future plans include a barn, community pavilion, and The Roost, which will be home to 15-20 laying hens. The Farm at Angeline reflects Metro's commitment to nurturing strong connections across a healthy, sustainable lifestyle. Read on for details on this innovative garden community.
