

There's A Geek In All Of Us!

Posted by Sandhya Divakaran On August 18, 2013 In Gadgets & Goodies

Every day brings new technology to our world. We live in a time, when a simple idea can generate a new thought process, and result in a gadget that changes the way a task is carried out. Every day, techno geeks and scientists are on the move to make life simpler, easier and more convenient for the common man.

Indeed, the onus is on convenience, so much so that things that were complicated and handled only by those, with specialized skills, are now broken down to easy jobs. For instance, take the movie industry. A once specialized, not to mention glamorous field, is now quite simple, almost as if anybody with a keen interest in cinema and an eye for putting together a script and angles can now be a director, with a hand-held camera. DJs have pocket consoles that can be used to play the latest tunes. Speakers are now wireless, and are powerful techno gadgets that can transmit songs using Wi-Fi. Photographs can be taken with a smartphone, edited and improved to professional quality. Every piece of technology is now focused on being simple.

Which is why Veho's equipment is extremely contemporary in its design & functionality, emphasizing on its ease of use. There is a range of gizmos: From simple, powerful earphones, to Bluetooth wireless speakers for smartphones and for the home, to cameras and harnesses that can keep your phone or recorders perfectly still while shooting. There's a wide variety to choose from. And not to be outdone, for those moments, when your mobile device runs out of juice, Veho has state-of-the-art chargers that will keep it running.

So when you're free and in the mood to create, there's a plethora of techno gadgets to choose from, that are geared to make your job easy and convenient. Pick up what you need from Desado, and get ready to bring your ideas to life!
