Evenio delivers high quality international event management in the pharmaceutical and healthcare sector with a specialisation in pharmaceutical Investigator Meetings. With our global reach and industry focus, Evenio events provide unique value to clients. With Evenio, you can focus on creating the professional synergy you want and leave the details up to us.

You want to make the most of your event, and with Evenio, your goals and standards are our highest priority.

Based in Europe, Evenio's experienced team and global mindset delivers consistent compliance and quality execution in any country, culture or venue.

Our Compliance Certificate

The healthcare and pharmaceutical industry demands a strong focus on compliance and transparency. Our detail-oriented team is always up to date in the latest industry requirements and ready to help you meet all regulatory standards. With Evenio's expertise in compliance and reporting policies, you can rest assured that your event will be compliant, transparent, target-specific, and cost-effective.

Planning and due diligence are factored into every aspect of our event planning. Evenio understands that industry compliance issues are at the core of every event in this industry, and we ensure that each and every requirement is fully satisfied. For that reason, each member of our team has received the necessary professional certification to manage healthcare meetings according to industry standards.

Global Mindset and Global Presence

We organize events all over the globe and see every city as a distinct experience that can and should add a special flavour to your professional event. So far Evenio has successfully executed events in:

Brussels, Warsaw, Helsinki, Moscow, Berlin, Stockholm, Budapest, Kiev, Prague

But for Evenio, there are no borders.

Our Values

Laying the Groundwork

At Evenio, event planning starts with learning your expectations and objectives. Then we begin designing an event that will fulfill your goals to the highest standards of industry compliance. However, we are always mindful that it is the creative touches that make every event shine.

We are here to see you through

Evenio's team starts each event by initiating and maintaining direct communication with all interested parties throughout the registration and travel planning process. Our deep knowledge of the industry and event partners also ensures that everyone is in constant contact with us, and that all are focused on making your event a success.

Transparency and Confidentiality

All personal data is kept confidential. We work with all partners and venues to guarantee that all personal data remains secure and adheres to the most up to date requirements.

Compliance

Evenio's events are fully compliant with industry requirements and include provide post-event reporting.

A Passion for Customer Service

Our team gives their utmost to deliver unforgettable events that also fulfill our client's needs. Venues, partners and everyone involved in an Evenio event are vetted for quality and their passion for customer service.

Evenio events are crafted with care by our professional team to ensure a high quality and memorable experience from the very beginning up to the very last day of our co-operation.

Planning and Concept Development

At Evenio we begin every engagement with in depth research of our client's needs. Once we understand your ethos and aspirations, we can begin the design process to make your event a one of a kind Evenio experience.

Venues and Vendors

The right location is a key aspect of any Investigator Meeting. Once we have decided upon your location and the concept you want, we begin to investigate the venues and vendors that will best suit your compliance and budget needs.

Communication and Co-ordination

We believe that the personal touch is one of the things that sets Evenio events apart. We will reach out to all meeting participants and our team will closely oversee all contact with them. We will also build a customized online Cvent event platform tailored to your event.

Reporting

Evenio will provide a detailed post-meeting report to support all compliance reporting requirements.

We are Evenio — and we are ready to organise an event for you today!
