

Wyatt Myskow

JOURNALIST

Introduction

I am a journalist based in Phoenix, Arizona and a sophomore at the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism at Arizona State University. I am currently the Community and Culture editor for The State Press, ASU's student newspaper, where I lead a small group of reporters covering university news. I am also an intern at The Arizona Republic, where I work as a digital producer. Over the past year, I have written and edited hundreds of stories on a variety of topics.

Career Summary

Community and Culture Editor

The State Press | January 2021-present

- Leading a desk of seven reporters, assigning stories and editing articles for style, grammar, sourcing and structure
- Creating and executing story ideas relevant to our audience in a timely manner
- Assisting reporters with finding sources, developing news angles and writing stories

Digital Producer

The Arizona Republic | January 2021- present

- Copy editing articles for grammar and style
- Fact-checking numbers, dates, names and more
- Publishing content and writing headlines for search engine optimization

Senior Reporter

The State Press | May 2020-December 2020

- Lead reporter covering breaking news, enterprise stories and investigations
- Meeting story deadlines and providing consistent coverage of assigned beats
- Working with different desks to develop talent and new content

Core Skills

- Utilizing AP style
- Writing and creating content
- Copyediting and proofreading
- Obtaining and using public records
- Covering stories across a variety of subjects
- Line editing stories for flow, sourcing and more
- Pitching both long-term projects and same-day stories
- Developing relationships with sources for both current and future stories

Education Background

Arizona State University

The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Majoring in journalism, with a minor in history

GPA: 3.5

Contact Information

Phone: 760-953-2168

Email: wyatt.myskow2000@gmail.com

Website: wyattmyskow.journoportfolio.com