

INTIMAN

BY ROBERT O'HARA

BARBECUE

DIRECTED BY MALIKA OYETIMEIN

MAY 30 — JUNE 25

TICKETS AT INTIMAN.ORG

INTIMAN 2017

BARBECUE

"Ferociously funny!" — Los Angeles Times

BARBECUE by Robert O'Hara
Directed by Malika Oyetimein
MAY 30 – JUNE 25
Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute

BARBECUE is a raucous and fearless take on the classic American family story in a way not seen before onstage. The O'Mallerys have gathered in their local park to share some barbecue and straight talk with their sister Barbara, whose spiral of drugs and recklessness has forced her siblings to stage an open-air intervention. With the whiskey flowing, family dysfunction and stereotypes collide as the play poses the question: Is family worse than addiction?

TICKETS AT INTIMAN.ORG

GIVE FOR
#BOLDTHEATRE

Now, more than ever, Intiman Theatre is dedicated to telling stories on stage that reflect our community and help create connection and understanding.

Make your donation
today!
Intiman.org/support

