An Online Candy Store Like No Other.

Traditionally, the personalized candy market has been serviced by small shops who charge high prices and offer a limited selection. Steve Mandell, godfather of the party goods industry and founder of the Party City stores, realized the need for a one-stop shop that would make personalized candy affordable and accessible to all. In October of 2016, his vision became reality with the launch of the Just Candy ecommerce site.

Today, the growing team at Just Candy is committed to outstanding customer service, simple ordering, and the widest assortment of unique personalized candies and top-quality assembled favors. With thousands of items available in nearly any color, type, and candy brand, Just Candy is determined to help you find the perfect favors to complete your party theme.

Indulge yourself and your guests in delicious sugar bliss by having Just Candy sweeten your next occasion!
